COME, EAT, AND BELIEVE

Do you enjoy a good buffet? Most of us appreciate the variety of salads, main courses, and desserts we find in a good buffet, and we like being able to pick and choose only those foods for which we have a particular yen.

Evidently, meals with an ample supply of food have been popular for millennia. In ancient times, Egyptian, Persian, Arabian, and North African regions hosted lavish banquets and these banquets were extraordinary. As such, they were limited only to certain guests. These guests were pampered and plied with food and drink and entertained with music and dance, while slaves and servants looked on and the poor could only imagine such luxury.

Aware of the popularity of banquets and the preciousness of even the most meager fare, the author of the book of Proverbs used the motifs of a great feast to entice the hungry to find their food not in a royal banquet hall, however lavish, but at Wisdom's table. Invitations to Wisdom's feast are not limited to a few. Rather, anyone who is hungry enough to hear and accept her invitation - be they slave or servant or poor - will be well-fed by Wisdom.

Wisdom's invitation and generous offer of food for all had its roots in Israel's past and offered a prelude of its future. Her great spread, offered freely, recalled the manna in the desert that fed the Israelites who were willing to depend daily on God's providence for their survival. Wisdom's feast also anticipated the meals that Jesus would offer to any and to all. First among the meals was the supply of barley bread and fish, which fed the physical hunger of the great crowd who had come in search of Him. Jesus is also attentive to the spiritual hunger of humankind and continues to feed, with the bread of His word, all who listen and learn and grow in responsiveness to His teachings.

A third feast continues to welcome everyone who believes in Jesus as true food and true drink in the breaking of the bread, which He left to His followers as an everlasting remembrance. This weekend's gospel features this aspect of Jesus' willingness to feed every human hunger. With a nod to Lady Wisdom, St. John has represented Jesus as Wisdom made flesh, who has come to dwell and move among us. As God's Wisdom and God's Word, Jesus has revealed the divine desire to give bread, to be bread for the life of the world. In order to provide this bread of life, Jesus was to be handed over, taken and broken on the cross so that His life could be given for us all.

Those who return again and again to be fed by Jesus' word and wisdom and very self are indeed privileged. These visits at the table that Jesus continues to prepare and to host are life-sustaining moments of great intimacy. These needs continue to provide believers with the gift of grace, which enables us - once our hungers have been fed - to tend to the hunger of others.

Throughout our lives, we Christians remain God's beloved beggars, invited to the banquet of God's own making. Now it devolves upon those of us who had found bread to tell others where they too can find bread. It is not enough merely to give directions. Rather, we are to be companions on the journey and table mates at the feast who are willing to be broken and given and shared so that others may eat and have life.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

SUMMER MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
Email: fklose@siparish.org

Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice". Congregational singing makes such a difference in our greatest prayer, the liturgy, and we cannot do it without those who minister to the congregational singing. Our music ministry groups are on hiatus for the Summer, but please consider joining one of them upon our return in the Fall.

Adult Choir - sings two times a month at various Masses and at special occasions.

Youth Band - Music ministry group sings at three 6:00 p.m. Masses each month. While the music is popular among young parishioners, the group is not limited to any age range. We encourage instrumentalists and voices that can lend their talents to a contemporary style.

First Light - Nicknamed "the Folk Group" by some, the group First Light sings at the 9:30 Mass three times a month.

If you are interested, please ask any music minister after Mass, or contact Frank at fklose@siparish.org.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith.

We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life, to pray for the gift of life, and to pray for all those who struggle with beginning of life and end of life issues, especially since they are at the forefront of our spiritual warfare. If you have a special intention for life, notify us at lrupperberger@gmail.com or through one of the sacrificial envelopes at the entrance of the Church and your petition will be placed weekly at the pro-life Rose of Life pedestal.

"Dr. Stevens, if you had believed in physician-assisted suicide, I wouldn't be here. You didn't give up on me, and you didn't abandon me, and that's why I'm still here...these are the kind of doctors we need; they give you hope when your hope is gone." (Jeannette's Story: 15 Years Later).

We need authentically Catholic physicians and healthcare providers, not just those who attend Mass and receive the Sacraments and pray, but those who uphold the principles and teachings of the Magisterium of the Catholic Church in both faith and science. We need those who will see the "Christ" in their patients and bring the healing touch of Christ to their patients in the exam room and clinic, not those who prescribe contraception and sterilization; who do abortions on demand; engage in IVF or offer 'end of life services' with assisted suicide. Seek out members of the Catholic Medical Association.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
