I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE

The disciples did not automatically come to full awareness of the true identity of Jesus and the purpose of His mission. Through the scriptures, contemporary believers can trace their ever deepening appreciation of who Jesus was. In St. Mark's Gospel, the true identity of the Son of God and Son of Man is withheld until a Roman soldier proclaims the dying Jesus to be the Holy One. A couple of decades later, when the Gospels of St. Matthew and St. Luke achieved their final form, the early believers clearly understood that Jesus was Lord and Christ from the moment of his conception...the infancy narratives attest to the development in Christian faith. By the time the fourth Gospel was completed about 90 AD, there was no doubt that Jesus was God, the very word of God made flesh.

All through the Gospel of St. John, it is evident that the early Christian community had by then grown to recognize Jesus as the living and breathing presence of God in their midst. Repeatedly in St. John's Gospel, Jesus acts and speaks in a manner that emphasizes His divinity.

In St. John's Gospel, Jesus reprises the gift of bread and then explains in detail, the significance of His action, all the while challenging those who ate their fill to believe in Him as the bread of life. Jesus' "I am the bread of life" is one of many such "I am" statements in St. John's Gospel. Each associates Jesus with the God who was similarly revealed to Moses.

Just as many were attracted to Jesus in the synoptic Gospels because of the wonders He worked, so many in the community of St. John refused to look beyond the sign of the bread of the One who gave it. This fascination with signs and wonders precluded their full appreciation of what Jesus was revealing to them. No longer would they be fed by manna and quail or even by the plentiful barley loaves and fish. Rather, Jesus was offering, as food, the gift of Himself, His teaching, His very body and blood given up in sacrifice for a sin. Through the ages, faith in Jesus' unique gift of Himself continues to challenge believers.

To describe this ongoing challenge, St. John drew upon a favorite technique of his: highlighting the deep irony that lies at the heart of the human experience. Many came seeking Jesus but they didn't want to follow Him. They called Him "Rabbi" but they refused to be taught. They clamored after bread, but they did not want to be nourished as Jesus intended. They were willing to work for a food that would perish, but Jesus challenged them to channel their efforts and their hungers toward food that gives eternal life.

Today, the challenges of St. John's Gospel still stands. So does the invitation to be taught, to be fed and to be one with Him, the Bread of Life.

Another challenge for us is the stark reality of hunger in our world. We are privileged to eat, to drink, to learn God's loving words and because of this privilege, we should be sensitized to the needs of others. We are to leave Mass each week enlightened by the doctrine, graced by the experience and willing to alleviate the hunger of those whom God will place in our path. At the meals Jesus hosted, there were no guest list or place cards. None were necessary, because all were invited. In our sharing of the bread of life, we pray to follow His lead in welcoming all others to His table and our own.

From the Religious Education Office

When PREP is not in session, the Religious Education Office is open Monday to Thursday, at 9:30 a.m. Note that the office is closed on Friday. The office is closed during the month of July; however PREP registrations can be sent to us through the mail. Since I do check email and phone messages, feel free to leave a message at afanagan@siparish.org. The PREP Office will reopen on Monday, August 3.

PREP: WE NEED A FIRST GRADE TEACHER FOR MONDAY NIGHT PREP CLASSES. If you would like to give it a try, please let Annmarie know - afanagan@siparish.org. Don't be afraid. There will be a Catechist Orientation Course at the end of August, and I promise I won't leave you stranded. WE NEED A FEW CLASSROOM AIDES FOR SOME SESSIONS (Sunday and Wednesday) to staff our program for the 2015-2016 school year. Please pray about this and consider offering your time and talent. FYI - PREP classes take place at the following times:

Sunday	8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. 10:45 a.m. to 12:00 noon
Monday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.
Wednesday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

REGISTRATION FOR 2015-2016 PREP YEAR

Our Religious Education program is open to students in grades K through 12. All PREP families should have received registration materials. Please bring or mail in completed registration forms for each child and tuition fee to the PREP Office as soon as possible.

If you are new to the parish or will have children entering kindergarten or grade 1 in the Fall, please stop in our office for information and registration materials, or call 215-493-5204. We will also need a copy of the child's Baptismal certificate unless he/she was baptized here at St. Ignatius Church.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

ST. IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH SCHOOL

"High Achievement ~ Higher Purpose"

From the desk of Mrs. DiTomaso:

During the month of July, let us all remember that we are Disciples of God. He sends us forth with His message to all people that we encounter. Whether we are near or far from home, we are all called to share the "Good News" of Jesus and His message. We must rely on God to help us do what He has asked of us.

The school office will be open Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:00pm during the month of July. The schedule is flexible so please call before stopping over.

Registrations will be accepted throughout the summer. Forms can be obtained or tours can be scheduled to calling 215-493-3867 or by emailing hcrozier@sischool.org.

Stay close to Jesus! Relax and enjoy the summer!

Did you know? These articles will appear in the church bulletin to help keep you, the parishioners, informed about our school.

Written by: Caroline Sullivan (8th grade graduate)

Did you know that St. Ignatius School is comprised of fully committed teachers that are dedicated to learning? Since we are not a very big school, teachers find a way to make learning fun and easy, as well as find unique ways of educating their students to prepare them for high school. Religion class is one of the strengths of St. Ignatius School. We are fully committed to our Catholic faith. We begin and end each day with prayer, attend Mass each month, take part in numerous service projects, say the rosary as a school in October and May, attend daily Mass during Advent and Lent, participate in Stations and Benediction during Lent, perform the Passion Play, and honor Mary in the May Procession. These are only some of the reasons that I am lucky to have been a student in St. Ignatius of Antioch School.

FATHER McCAFFERTY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

Many thanks to Helen Boyce and Bill & Loretta Amerine for their recent contributions to the Scholarship Fund in memory of Diane Mays.

A suggestion to our parishioners - see if the company you work for might consider a matching gift to your donation to our Scholarship Fund.

Monsignor Shoemaker is in need of several donations to the fund in order to assist needy families with school tuition.

PLEASE REMEMBER... The first day each week for Catholic Education in School and PREP begins on Saturday/Sunday with attendance at Mass.

RCIA meets weekly on Thursday evenings from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in the Religious Education Center. If this time does not work for you, we can adapt. We will break open the Word of God and discuss what it means to be a follower of Jesus Christ and a member of the Catholic Church.

THE FAMILY FULLY ALIVE PRO LIFE/PRO FAMILY MEETING

In preparation for the 2015 World Meeting of Families and the visit of Pope Francis, St. Ignatius Parish will hold a gathering, named after the 2015 theme for the world meeting, to pray and praise God for the gift of family and life, and to gain understanding of the beautiful teachings gifted to us by the church of Philadelphia in order to prepare for the World Meeting of Families next September.

For more information, please contact Marie Joseph at 215-493-1058 or Sheila Gallagher at 215-493-5298. If you are alive, you are part of a family... all are welcome!

SUMMER MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
Email: fklose@siparish.org

Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice". Congregational singing makes such a difference in our greatest prayer, the liturgy, and we cannot do it without those who minister to the congregational singing. Our music ministry groups are on hiatus for the Summer, but please consider joining one of them upon our return in the Fall.

Adult Choir - sings two times a month at various Masses and at special occasions.

Youth Band - Music ministry group sings at three 6:00 p.m. Masses each month. While the music is popular among young parishioners, the group is not limited to any age range. We encourage instrumentalists and voices that can lend their talents to a contemporary style.

First Light - Nicknamed "the Folk Group" by some, the group First Light sings at the 9:30 Mass three times a month.

If you are interested, please ask any music minister after Mass, or contact Frank at fklose@siparish.org.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith.

We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

RCIA ANNOUNCEMENT

If you are a baptized Catholic (ages 18 and older) who never received the Sacrament of Confirmation, and you would like to receive this Sacrament, please contact Annmarie Flanagan at 215-493-5204 or email her at aflanagan@siparish.org for information.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life, to pray for the gift of life, and to pray for all those who struggle with beginning of life and end of life issues, especially since they are at the forefront of our spiritual warfare. If you have a special intention for life, notify us at lrupperberger@gmail.com or through one of the sacrificial envelopes at the entrance of the Church and your petition will be placed weekly at the pro-life Rose of Life pedestal.

"It is the Lord who goes before you; He will be with you and will never fail you or forsake you. So do not fear or be dismayed." (Deuteronomy 31:8).

Regardless of what difficulty one faces, whether an unplanned pregnancy, a complicated pregnancy, a high risk pregnancy, an ill infant or child, or end of life suffering with cancer, chronic diseases, dementia and such, we cannot despair and 'take over' for God. He is in charge. He has a plan. There is some salvific value in suffering, and all we need to do is meditate on the Sorrowful Mysteries of the Rosary to see how Jesus suffered....He has shown the way and it is He whom we need to imitate, not the so-called 'heroes' of our secular culture of death.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
