YOU DO NOT DESIRE SACRIFICE

The Letter to the Hebrews, this weekend's second reading, was written largely to explain how the Christian religion was the fulfillment of the Jewish religion.

Jesus was a Jew: So were all of His disciples and friends. They all followed the basic Jewish laws and beliefs. They had no intention of starting a new religion: They thought they were being faithful to their tradition, simply following its belief to its logical conclusion.

Jews had always believed in one God and looked forward to a Messiah and the Kingdom of God on Earth. Jesus said he spoke for that same God and that the Kingdom of God had come. Jesus Himself was the sign and proof of the Kingdom.

Ideally then, all of the Jews would have accepted Jesus as the expected Messiah and the presence of God's Kingdom. Ideally, the Jewish religion would have gradually, smoothly transformed itself around this new expression of Judaism and become Jewish Christianity.

That didn't happen, as we know. The traditional Jew fought to retain their ancient beliefs while Christians tried to introduce them to a fuller understanding of their faith. Both sides fought bitterly over the truth until the Christians left or were driven out of the Jewish religion. Then, after being separated in fact, Christians had to separate themselves in practice.

The greatest Jewish ritual was sacrifice. Everyday, the temple was filled with dripping blood, boiling fat and billowing smoke. Offering animal sacrifice was an expression of worship. Though prophets raged against substituting sacrifice for doing God's will, sacrifice remained a physical bond with a spiritual God.

The Letter to the Hebrews deals with the issue. It says that Jesus repeated God's rejection of sacrifice. Jesus said that instead of sacrifice to God, He came to do God's will.

Of course, the Jews had always tried to do God's will. That was the whole point of the Torah. God's will took on even more significance when they could not get to the temple, they gathered in synagogues to study the Torah.

So, in historical fact as well as religious practice, the Jews were already replacing sacrifice with doing God's will when Jesus came along. And once again, there might have been a smooth transition to the religion of Jesus. But this Letter to the Hebrews points out the intractable problem. It quotes Jesus as saying: "sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me to do your will."

The Jews might have been weaned away from animal sacrifice, but they could not accept the human sacrifice of Jesus as a replacement. They would exchange sacrifice for doing God's will—but God's will as they knew it in the Torah, not the interpretation of the Torah according to this upstart Preacher.

ST. IGNATIUS PARISH APPEAL ~ 2015-2016 UPDATE

Our annual parish appeal is underway and will run through January 31, 2016. Thank you to all who have responded to this year's appeal. For those who have not yet made their gift, there is still plenty of time. You should have received a letter from Monsignor Shoemaker about this effort. If you have not received the appeal materials, please contact the rectory office at 215-493-3377, ext. 211. Appeal envelopes are also available at each of the exit areas of the church.

As of our tenth week of the Parish appeal, 327 families have contributed $101,514.13 toward our goal of $175,000.00.

You may place your completed appeal envelope containing your gift in the regular Sunday collection basket. You may also mail your gift to the Parish office or drop it off there anytime during our appeal, or as soon as your means allow.

Thank you for your generosity!

CHRISTMAS FLOWERS

As Christmas draws near, many of our thoughts are turning toward our preparations for the annual celebration of Our Lord's birth. Many are involved in travel plans to be with family, trimming the Christmas trees, getting the right gifts for those we love, preparing special family recipes, etc. Our St. Ignatius family is also beginning preparations for this celebration. One thing that adds so much to our annual celebration is the special care with which the church is decorated to enhance the festivities.

Each year, the church is beautifully decorated through the generosity of our parishioners' contributions to the Christmas Flower Fund. We ask that you consider making your Christmas flowers donation in honor of or in memory of loved ones (living or deceased). You can do so by writing the names of those you wish to memorialize on the Christmas Flowers envelope itself or on a piece of paper that you place with your donation into the envelope. Please print names clearly.

You may place the Christmas Flower envelope in the regular Sunday collection or send it to the rectory any time in December. The names of those memorialized in this manner will be published in a special insert in our bulletin in January. Thank you for your continued support!

Gifts of Warmth are invaluable to our homebound friends during the cold, winter season. Please use the Aid for Friends donation boxes at any of the church entrances to leave your unwrapped gift. Your kindness and generosity are always appreciated.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the "life rose" on the altar by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the adoration chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication. Please stop by to pray for life at our Lady of Guadalupe grotto at the entrance of the Church.

"Those who sow in tears will reap with cries of joy. Those who go forth weeping, carrying sacks of seed, will return with cries of joy, carrying their bundled sheaves." (Psalm 126:5-6).

We all labor in the vineyard to which we were called in the Lord's garden. Some clear the area. Some prepare the ground. Some plant seeds. Some water. Some fertilize. We are not called to the harvest as that is reserved for the Lord, but "let us not grow weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up" (Gal 6:9). We cannot get frustrated in not seeing 'results' from our labor...it will come in the Lord's time...just do that to which you were called for living your life.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
