WE ARE GOD'S FAMILY

If Jesus, Mary, and Joseph somehow model the ideal family, they also confront us with conditions no other family will every face. Jesus is no ordinary child. Mary is a virginal mother who conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit. Joseph is partner to a woman he shares no intimacy with and a guardian of a child that is not his. Not unlike other biblical families that exhibit more dysfunction than normalcy, the Holy Family is more mystery than model.

Yet, the Gospel narrative does describe in the circumstances that beset them from the outset challenges that confront many families in today's world. There is inspiration here; Joseph will shepherd his family through a harrowing series of struggles, defying the odds in a violent world to guard God's purpose in its most vulnerable beginnings. Millions of parents live out this same story every day. The Holy Family can be found in the refugee camp and among the desperate flow of immigrants fleeing countries, seeking asylum and economic survival across unwelcome borders.

Did Joseph take his tools on the flight to Egypt, and was he able to find a job in the labor pools along the trade routes and in the teeming cities along the Nile? Did he and Mary know of the slaughter of children in the wake of their flight from Bethlehem? Where his warning dreams like the nightmares so many fathers endure in safe houses and shelters, anguishing over what comes next, who can be trusted, will there be food and welcome where they are going?

The Feast of the Holy Family draws our attention to God's presence in our world now. The Feast of the Holy Family might be our moment to see God in the pressing issue of immigration reform. We are all immigrants and refugees, even if we have forgotten how our parents or grandparents got here and what it cost them to insure a future for us.

Feasts are always about the whole Church. The Holy Family is a pilgrim people. Our liturgical procession reminds us that our whole lives are a journey, a continual passage through the mysterious death and resurrection of Jesus. We are on an exodus from death to life. As we mature, we become holy by enlarging our hearts to embrace others. In welcoming them, we welcome Jesus, Mary, and Joseph.

This is not to deny or oversimplify the complex political and economic questions that surround immigration. But what better time to affirm the underlying principles of the Church's social justice tradition and the protection of human dignity than the Feast of the Holy Family? What better time is there to stand up as a Church against attacks on the human family from all sides.

At the heart of every liturgy is the proclamation that God has entered human history. We celebrate God's presence with us, in our families, in our faith communities and in the unfolding works of mercy and justice that make effective God's purpose on Earth. We are God's Holy Family.

The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary, and Joseph December 27, 2015

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

~1 John 3:2a

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
 By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the "life rose" on the altar by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the adoration chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication. Please stop by to pray for life at our Lady of Guadalupe grotto at the entrance of the Church.

"We know what true, authentic love looks like. It looks like the Man on the Cross. This deep, pure love that motivated Jesus to offer His life for ours, is the love that will answer the longing of our hearts, if we let it." (USCCB).

We celebrate this weekend, the Holy innocents, those children under the age of two killed by Herod in an attempt to kill Jesus. There were the first buds of the Church killed by the frost of persecution, they died not only for Christ, but in His stead. These children are among the first martyrs. What of our children who today are killed in the name of 'choice' and 'freedom of body' and 'gender rights'? They too, are 'innocents' whose lives are disrespected and devalued in a striving for some to maintain their "sovereignty" similar to Herod. Let us pray for them all.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Join us on the March for Life Bus trip to Washington, DC which leaves 8AM on January 22, 2016 from the parking lot of St. Ignatius. For more information or to reserve a seat, contact Nancy McNeela at nmcneela@gmail.com.
