GOING PLACES WITH GOOD NEWS

Few stories are as moving as those that follow a person through a tunnel of tragedy and watch him/her emerge, wounded but well and wiser, on the other side. When recovering addicts or alcoholics relate their downward spiral into drugs and drink and then tell of that moment when they hit bottom and decided to turn their lives around, who is not impressed with their struggle? Who doesn't rejoice with them in their triumph? When hardened criminals see the error of their ways and reform their lives, their stories uplift and inspire us. Who hasn't been moved by the struggle of another person who has fought hard to withstand the effects of a grave illness, and after enduring the necessary treatment, celebrates his/her survival? Parents whose children have finally emerged from years of rebellion or delinquency are happy to share the good news of family healing and reconciliation. Spouses, children, and parents of children whose time spent on the battlefield has brought endless worry are only too happy to receive the phone call or the email that announces their safe return home.

All these instances of survival, reconciliation, healing, and new life are experiences of the Good News of salvation that begs to be shared and shouted with joy to others. In this weekend's gospel, a former leper who was cured by Jesus is featured as "publicizing the whole matter" and spreading abroad the report of what Jesus did for him. His was good news of healing and restoration to life. How could he not go public with his joy? Those who encounter Jesus and who are touched by His life-giving, life-changing power cannot be silent. On the contrary, that encounter and their experiences of healing and restoration automatically require that the healed ones become the heralds of good news.

Today, the experience of that leper from long ago challenged each of us to reflect on what Jesus has done in our lives. What difference has the presence of the risen Lord made, and how has our relationship with Him affected us? For most of us, the experience will probably not involve being cured of the leprosy that is Hansen's disease. Nevertheless, there are countless ways in which we have been touched by Jesus and untold instances of "leprosy" from which we have been healed. As we think upon these things and on the many different experiences of healing, restoration, reconciliation, and new life we have known, we cannot help but be grateful. But the gospel requires more from us than quiet and comfortable gratitude; today, we are impelled to give grateful voice to our experiences and to proclaim how the Good News of salvation has been revealed to us and within us.

When the Good News becomes our news to experience and our news to tell, then we become an inherent aspect of the message. This was the experience of the leper who came to Jesus and knelt before Him and asked for healing. Made whole and clean and holy, his very being became a part of the witness that would reveal Jesus to others. With who will you share the experience of Jesus? How will you go public with your story? When will you and I go public with our story? When will you and I become living words in the ongoing conversation that is the gospel of our salvation?

ST. IGNATIUS PARISH APPEAL 2015

This week, you should have received a letter regarding our parish appeal. A few weeks ago, we had an insert in the bulletin discussing that we are doing a parish appeal. Our parish appeal will begin on February 15, 2015 and conclude on June 15, 2015. Recently, a letter from the Archdiocese of Philadelphia for Catholic Charities Appeal was sent out. I understand that the St. Ignatius Parish Appeal and the Catholic Charities Appeal will run simultaneously. However, these are both two different appeals, each being important. I ask that you do your best with what you have for these appeals.

Our parish appeal goal is $175,000. All monies raised from our parish appeal will be applied to our infrastructure needs. I ask for your participation when our appeal begins so we can continue our focus of serving. I know I can count on your financial assistance.

If you did not receive your letter, please contact the rectory office at 215-493-3377, ext. 211. Appeal envelopes are available at each of the exit areas in the church.

THE 2016 MASS BOOK is now open for anyone who wishes to reserve Masses for their loved ones.

Please call the rectory and speak with one of our secretaries to make an appointment to reserve your Mass.

The remaining years, she spent in other Catholic schools in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Wouldn't it be nice if some of her former students would drop her a note to say "HI" to say "THANKS" and to let her know what they are doing now? So, please take a minute to honor Mrs. McKenna.

Congratulations and thank you, Mrs. McKenna!

MUSIC "NOTES"

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister

Email: fklose@siparish.org

Phone: 267-670-3413

"If you wish, you can make me clean", the leper says to Jesus in today's Gospel. The first reading looks at the Mosaic law that showed the leper as a marked man, forever considered unclean as long as he has sores. But Jesus is eager to show that God's healing mercy extends to all.

So, we will open our liturgy by singing "Amazing Grace" (#645) and returning to "Jesus Heal Us" (#952) to remind us of the healing nature of Jesus. The Responsorial Psalm found in today's readings (#1108) is a reminder that God is willing to save those in times of trouble, even when we are indeed unclean and in need of healing. "Praise The One Who Breaks The Darkness" (#625) reminds us that Jesus breaks the darkness brought on by our illness, sinfulness, and afflictions, so that we may truly live.

If anyone is interested in joining any of the parish music ministries (choir, youth band, First Light), please contact Frank at the email address above.

ADORATION CHAPEL

We are truly blessed at St. Ignatius to have an Adoration Chapel. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, someone is spending quiet time with our Eucharistic Lord, Jesus! You can too, anytime day or night - just come in and visit. Also if you would like to come at a set time each week, please consider taking one of the following hours:

Sunday - 3:00pm; Tuesday - 12:00am, 3:00am and 9:00am; Friday - 6:00pm; Saturday - 12:00pm. Also, if you would like to be a partner on Monday at 6:00pm or Saturday at 7:00pm, that would be appreciated. For more information about Eucharistic Adoration, kindly call Marianne Kloc for more information at 267-346-0152.

New Information for Chapel Closing: To find out if the Chapel is open or closed, kindly call 215-493-3377, extension 221. A recorded message will give you the latest information. We are phasing out calling our Adorers, so please call the information number provided and keep it handy for your convenience. It would be helpful to call anytime the weather is inclement to see if we have decided upon an extended closing.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee offers all parishioners the opportunity to dedicate our Rose for Life to a special occasion, person, or event. Just fill out one of the envelopes at the entrances of the church or adoration chapel and drop off in a collection basket or at the rectory. We will accommodate a special plaque to your request on the 'rose pedestal'. Also, please stop by our new Guadalupe shrine in the Reading Avenue entrance of the Church and say one Hail Mary to stop abortion.

"Catholics hold that marriage is a vocation, a 'call'. It is a way of life that offers continual opportunities to be in loving service to the other". One of the things we all forget is that marriage is a sacrament, and there are only seven as instituted by Christ Himself. I think it would be a better option for those who support traditional marriage and wish to honor it as the sacred sacrament it is...we should all refer to this vocation as matrimony, as the name of the sacrament is stated!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
