BATTLE SCARS

As we experience the wear and tear and struggles of daily living, we are bound to pick up some scars along the way. Some of these are physical and of little consequence, as in the little bumps and scrapes of childhood's rough-and-tumble play. Others are more severe, as in the bruises of the abused or the wounds suffered by victims of war, injustice, and illness. Every day the news media carry stories of those injured by explosive devices in Iraq and Afghanistan. Soldiers who survive such attacks are maimed; their lost limbs and damaged bodies testify to the horror of war. Their scars speak volumes about the insanity and inhumanity that are allowed to go unchecked by the indifferent. Landmines heinously planted in so many of this world's countries, continue to create victims.

There are many scars that go more than skin deep. Emotional and psychological and even spiritual traumas can create lasting moments of suffering that are difficult to heal. These experiences are written on the faces and on the souls of those who suffer them and often come back to haunt them with uncanny freshness.

Each of the scripture texts for this weekend invites our appreciation of the scars of three men who suffered for their faith in God and commitment to the spiritual well-being of others. Realizing that he would be wounded if he spoke the truth to those whom God called "hard to face and obstinate of heart," Ezekiel nevertheless agreed to serve. In his willingness to bear scars and wounds, Ezekiel knew he was not alone, God was with him.

St. Paul, also, struggles for the sake of the gospel. St. Paul endured insults, persecution, rejection, and a certain suffering that he referred to as "a thorn in the flesh." St. Paul accepted this wound and bore it as a battle scar. St. Paul, because of that thorn, was made more keenly aware of the grace of God at work in him, transforming his weakness by its power.

In the gospel, Jesus bears no physical scars; those would come later when He would be handed over, made to suffer and die a horrific death. For the moment, the wounds Jesus bears for the sake of the gospel are emotional and psychological.

As the three readings are read in our hearing, the scars and experiences of Ezekiel, St. Paul, and Jesus speak to us. They remind us of the fact that those who stand for goodness and truth and who stand in solidarity with all of their brothers and sisters throughout the world cannot travel through this life unscathed.

When put to the test, Ezekiel, St. Paul, and Jesus emerged with scars that witnessed to their struggles. However, they were stronger for their struggles because each had clung to that promise God made and continues to make to each of us: "My grace is sufficient for you; My power is made perfect in weakness." Weak, scarred, and vulnerable as we may be, God's grace and power are ever with us.

Fourteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time July 5, 2015

My grace is sufficient for you, for power is made perfect in weakness.

~ 2 Corinthians 12:9

From the Religious Education Office

When PREP is not in session, the Religious Education Office is open Monday to Thursday, at 9:30 a.m. Note that the office is closed on Friday. The office is closed during the month of July; however PREP registrations can be sent to us through the mail. Since I do check email and phone messages, feel free to leave a message at aflanagan@siparish.org. The PREP Office will reopen on Monday, August 3.

We owe a big thank you to all the adults and junior aide volunteers and our campers who helped to make our Vacation Bible School Camp a great success! Don't forget: God has the power to take care of us!

PREP: WE NEED A FEW CLASSROOM AIDES FOR SOME SESSIONS AND A HALL/DOOR MONITOR FOR THE 8:00 A.M. SESSION TO STAFF OUR PROGRAM FOR THE 2015-2016 SCHOOL YEAR.

Please pray about this and consider offering your time and talent for the following sessions:

Sunday	8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. 10:45 a.m. to 12:00 noon
Monday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.
Wednesday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

REGISTRATION FOR 2015-2016 PREP YEAR

Our Religious Education program is open to students in grades K through 12. All PREP families should have received registration materials. Please bring or mail in completed registration forms for each child and tuition fee to the PREP Office as soon as possible.

If you are new to the parish or will have children entering kindergarten or grade 1 in the Fall, please stop in our office for information and registration materials, or call 215-493-5204. We will also need a copy of the child's Baptismal certificate unless he/she was baptized here at St. Ignatius Church.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

I will be working hard to complete a calendar for the 2015-2016 school year. I look forward to meeting everyone and kicking off our school year in August!

ST. IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH SCHOOL

"High Achievement ~ Higher Purpose" From the desk of Mrs. DiTommaso:

During the month of July, let us all remember that we are Disciples of God. He sends us forth with His message to all people that we encounter. Whether we are near or far from home, we are all called to share the "Good News" of Jesus and His message. We must rely on God to help us do what He has asked of us.

The school office will be open Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 9:00am to 2:00pm during the month of July. The schedule is flexible so please call before stopping over.

Registrations will be accepted throughout the summer. Forms can be obtained or tours can be scheduled to calling 215-493-3867 or by emailing hcrozier@sishschool.org.

Stay close to Jesus! Relax and enjoy the summer!

Did you know? These articles will appear in the church bulletin to help keep you, the parishioners, informed about our school.

Written by: Caroline Sullivan (8th grade graduate)

Did you know that St. Ignatius School is comprised of fully committed teachers that are dedicated to learning? Since we are not a very big school, teachers find a way to make learning fun and easy, as well as find unique ways of educating their students to prepare them for high school. Religion class is one of the strengths of St. Ignatius School. We are fully committed to our Catholic faith. We begin and end each day with prayer, attend Mass each month, take part in numerous service projects, say the rosary as a school in October and May, attend daily Mass during Advent and Lent, participate in Stations and Benediction during Lent, perform the Passion Play, and honor Mary in the May Procession. These are only some of the reasons that I am lucky to have been a student in St. Ignatius of Antioch School.

FATHER McCAFFERTY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

A suggestion to our parishioners - see if the company you work for might consider a matching gift to your donation to our Scholarship Fund.

Monsignor Shoemaker is in need of several donations to the fund in order to assist needy families with school tuition.

PLEASE REMEMBER

The first day each week for Catholic Education in School and PREP begins on Saturday/Sunday with attendance at Mass.

SUMMER MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister

Email: fklose@siparish.org

Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice". Congregational singing makes such a difference in our greatest prayer, the liturgy, and we cannot do it without those who minister to the congregational singing. Our music ministry groups are on hiatus for the Summer, but please consider joining one of them upon our return in the Fall.

Adult Choir - sings two times a month at various Masses and at special occasions.

Youth Band - Music ministry group sings at three 6:00 p.m. Masses each month. While the music is popular among young parishioners, the group is not limited to any age range. We encourage instrumentalists and voices that can lend their talents to a contemporary style.

First Light - Nicknamed "the Folk Group" by some, the group First Light sings at the 9:30 Mass three times a month.

If you are interested, please ask any music minister after Mass, or contact Frank at fklose@siparish.org.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith.

We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the 'life rose' on the altar or by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping it off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the Adoration Chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication.

"By following Jesus' new Commandment of unselfish love, our lives can be richly fulfilling, and marked by joy and peace. In contrast, treating others as either means or obstacles to one's self-serving goals, while never learning to love generously, is an impoverished way to live." (Cardinal DiNardo).

As we celebrate Independence Day, we all enjoy many freedoms, and we all have many gifts, primarily the gifts of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. We are all created in the image and likeness of God. We all have free will and intellect which separates us from other animal species. With these gifts, we should be able to respect life, respect each other, and ultimately realize that our pursuit of happiness is not for this world, but for the next. Let us love one another as Jesus showed us how He loved us on the Cross.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

REFLECTION QUESTIONS CONCERNING THE EUCHARIST

1. In what ways is the Catholic tradition different to Protestantism in regard to the teaching of the Eucharist?
2. How does your faith in the real presence comfort you?
3. Do you allow Jesus to feed your soul or do you allow other things to satisfy you?
4. In return for Jesus offering Himself to you, how do you offer yourself to God?
5. Name the practical ways in which you can enter into communion with God.
6. In regard to consuming the Body of Christ, how in turn will you become Christ to others?
