

"The kingdom of God
is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown
in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds of the earth.
But once it is sown,
it springs up and becomes the largest of plants."

VALUES OF THE KINGDOM

Jesus came to establish the Kingdom of God. But to do that, He had to deal with the Kingdom of Earth. That was the Roman Empire. Israel was a colony; and like all colonists, every Jew had to forge their own relationship to the powers-that-be.

The priests collaborated with Rome, both to maintain their status and to guarantee the exercise of the Jewish religion in a secular world. The Pharisees compromised with Rome by adapting the Jewish religion to Roman roles. The Essenes allowed no intermingling; they abandoned Rome to the devil and waited in desert caves for salvation. The zealots were even farther outside the circle of power - they fought Roman dominance, even to the point of military revolution.

When Jesus was dropped in the middle of this volatile situation, He also had to form His own relationship with the King of the world. He decided that collaboration and adaptation and flight and revolution were simply tactics to maintain a temporary balance of power. What Jesus wanted was a strategy to eventually reverse the center of power.

His overall strategy was simple: accept reality, give everything its due. To paraphrase His campaign: after you give your absolute allegiance to God, then give Caesar what he deserves. Seek the Kingdom of God first, then everything else will find its proper place.

Jesus entered the fray on the side of the poor. That was the only way to include them in the Kingdom. In all secular Kingdoms, the successful people find their way to the top and then let as much as they wish filter down to lesser mortals. That means there are always people on the bottom, excluded from the common.

Jesus knew that the only way to include outcasts was to get them into the Kingdom first, the poor, not the rich, would be the base of the Kingdom. Sinners, not saints would be sought, the sick, not the well, would be cared for, spirit, not law, would be the force of the Kingdom.

Jesus began a whirlwind campaign. He cured anyone in sight: blind, deaf, dumb, possessed, lame, child, adult—He was a mobile free clinic. He warned the rich not to build bigger barns until the poor were fed.

It is difficult and dangerous to transfer the values of God's Kingdom into today's world. But that is precisely the task of preaching. So we try. Today, Jesus says: "The earth belongs to God, and every single person deserves a share."

In some way or other, to some degree or other, the poor, the married, the outcast, the underclass must be included in God's Kingdom. Not because they are better, not because they deserve it, not because this is what God wants but because this is the way God lives, the way God is.

Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time June 14, 2015

BISHOP'S APPEAL

This weekend, Bishop Herbert Bevard will return to St. Ignatius Parish for another mission appeal. Bishop Bevard comes from the Diocese of St. Thomas in the U.S. Virgin Islands. St. Thomas is the smallest and poorest diocese in the United States. It consists of eight parishes. In order to provide Catholic Education for the young people of the island, and Catholic Charities programs for the poor people of the islands, it is necessary for the Bishop to visit parishes in the Continental United States and ask for their kind and generous support. The Bishop thanks you for your great charity during his last visit and he looks forward to being with you again.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

SUMMER MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister

Email: fklose@siparish.org

Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice". Congregational singing makes such a difference in our greatest prayer, the liturgy, and we cannot do it without those who minister to the congregational singing. Our music ministry groups are on hiatus for the Summer, but please consider joining one of them upon our return in the Fall.

Adult Choir - sings two times a month at various Masses and at special occasions.

Youth Band - Music ministry group sings at three 6:00 p.m. Masses each month. While the music is popular among young parishioners, the group is not limited to any age range. We encourage instrumentalists and voices that can lend their talents to a contemporary style.

First Light - Nicknamed "the Folk Group" by some, the group First Light sings at the 9:30 Mass three times a month.

If you are interested, please ask any music minister after Mass, or contact Frank at fklose@siparish.org.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the 'life rose' on the altar or by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping it off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the Adoration Chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication.

"Some behaviors are always wrong, always incompatible with our love of God and the dignity of the human person...assisted suicide and euthanasia are not acts of mercy but acts that are never morally acceptable." (USCCB Committee on Pro-life Activities).

We must all have sympathy and empathy for those who are suffering with intractable pain, those who have a terminal illness, those whose lives are compromised and considered by some to be 'worthless' or of 'little value'. We are all created in the image and likeness of God and He has a plan for all of us and none of us live one moment longer or shorter than HIS WILL to fulfill the plan. It is NOT for any of us to judge the value of a life or its functionality, nor is it for ANY of us to decide when to 'end it' or even request a physician to assist them in ending a life, regardless of reason!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

ADORATION CHAPEL

We are truly blessed at St. Ignatius to have an Adoration Chapel. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, someone is spending quiet time with our Eucharistic Lord, Jesus! You can too, anytime day or night - just come in and visit. Also if you would like to come at a set time each week, please consider taking one of the following hours:

Sunday - 3:00pm; Monday - 10:00am; Tuesday - 3:00am, 9:00am, 3:00pm, and 6:00pm; Thursday - 4pm; Friday - 6:00pm; Saturday - 4am and 12:00pm. Also, if you would like to be a partner on Monday at 6:00pm, Saturday at 7:00pm, or Sunday at 8:00pm, that would be appreciated.

Kindly call Marianne Kloc for more information at 267-346-0152, if you would like more information or if you would like to substitute at your convenience.

Our Chapel is open except when the weather is inclement or we are celebrating the Easter Triduum. To find out if our Chapel is open or closed, please call 215-493-3377, ext. 221. A recorded message will give you the latest information. We suggest you keep this number handy for your convenience. Thank you for your cooperation and commitment to Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

Maria Gdovin - Youth Minister
Email: ym@siparish.org
Phone: 267-391-7693

I would like to take this opportunity to introduce myself to you, the parishioners at St. Ignatius. I am Maria Gdovin (pronounced ga-doe-vin) and I'm the new youth minister at our parish. I graduated from St. Andrew's School, my home parish, in 2004. I then went to Nazareth Academy and graduated in 2008. After high school, I decided to challenge my faith by attending Penn State University, where I graduated in 2012. Right after graduation, I was offered a Director of Youth Ministry position at Our Lady of Victory Parish in State College, PA. I worked there full time for two years as well as part time at the preschool at Our Lady of Victory. After two years, I decided I wanted to continue my education and I applied to graduate school at Holy Family University. I am currently enrolled there and just reached my half-way point! I'll be graduated with my Masters of Education next May.

I am very excited to start working with the youth group here at St. Ignatius. I thank Monsignor Shoemaker for the opportunity to work here and continue to learn about my Catholic faith, as well as teaching our young church about the faith. I am always open to hear from the parishioners and youth of the parish.

Please feel free to reach out to me about anything at all!
