AN ADAPTABLE, FLEXIBLE MINISTRY

Are you a planner? Do you set an agenda for your day? Is your BlackBerry or iPhone programmed to alert you to upcoming appointments? Do you make lists that help structure your time and order your priorities?

Most of us do approach life with desire for order and yearn for a sense of accomplishment. Of course, this can be very beneficial, unless such a penchant for scheduling weakens our ability to be flexible, or if it diminishes our willingness to be engaged by the unexpected. When we value adhering to a schedule more than we value the needs of others, then God's good people are ill served.

In this regard, Henri Nouwen once shared an experience of his own in his book "Time Enough to Minister". Pressed by the demands of teaching at Yale and feeling overwhelmed, Nouwen decided to take a prayer sabbatical at the Trappist Abbey of the Genesee in New York. His schedule would consist solely of prayer. On his second day there, a group of students from a nearby school approached him and requested that he give them a retreat. Nouwen complained to the Abbot, "I came here to get away from that type of thing. These students have asked for five meditations-an enormous amount of work and preparation. I don't want to do it. Why should I spend my sabbatical time preparing all those things?" "Please?", the Abbot asked. "You've been a Catholic for 40 years since your conversion and a priest for 20 years and all these high school students want is a part of your life in God for just a little while."

What the Abbot knew and what Nouwen learned is that disciples of Jesus are called to live in a constant state of preparation, so that when someone who is drowning comes into our world, we are ready to reach out and help.

The Gospels make it clear that Jesus came around among us with an agenda: He came to announce the reign of God. He came to invite sinners to repent and to believe the good news of salvation. He came to reveal God's love, mercy, and forgiveness to all, and this He did with a sense of urgency and purpose. But when He was called to digress from his daily agenda, He did. By allowing Himself to be flexible to the needs that took Him from his plotted course of action, Jesus accepted the will of God for Him and for those to whom He ministered.

In this weekend's Gospel, St. Mark picks up his verbal portrait of Jesus immediately after the healing of a man possessed by demons. A large crowd had gathered, and it would seem an opportune time to develop the man's cure into a teachable moment. However, at the request of a Synagogue official named Jairus, Jesus willingly put His plan on hold and saw to the man's needs.

In his willingness to set the needs of others before His own plans and desires, Jesus remains the example for every minister. Had Jesus insisted on keeping His own agenda, the lives of many people would have been quite different.

If you'll be away, please remember your parish contributions when you return or mail them to the rectory.

WARMER WEATHER DRESS IN CHURCH

With the warm weather upon us, we ask all our parishioners to use good judgment in choosing their attire for church. Modesty should never be sacrificed for the sake of comfort. Short shorts, tank tops, t-shirts with inappropriate messages, low-cut or backless dresses, bare midriffs and tight-fitting clothes are inappropriate at any time and especially in church.

D'YOUVILLE MANOR

Join us for a FREE event. Our guest speaker, Fr. Timothy Judge, will be discussing the topic of End of Life/Advance Directive planning from a religious perspective. The event will be held on July 23rd at 6pm at Holy Redeemer D'Youville Manor located at 1750 Quarry Road, Yardley, PA 19067.

From the Religious Education Office

When PREP is not in session, the Religious Education Office is open Monday to Thursday, at 9:30 a.m. Note that the office is closed on Friday. The office is closed during the month of July; however PREP registrations can be sent to us through the mail. Since I do check email and phone messages, feel free to leave a message at aflanagan@siparish.org.

PREP: WE NEED A FEW CLASSROOM AIDES FOR SOME SESSIONS AND A HALL/DOOR MONITOR FOR THE 8:00 A.M. SESSION TO STAFF OUR PROGRAM FOR THE 2015-2016 SCHOOL YEAR.

Please pray about this and consider offering your time and talent for the following sessions:

Sunday	8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. 10:45 a.m. to 12:00 noon
Monday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.
Wednesday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

REGISTRATION FOR 2015-2016 PREP YEAR

Our Religious Education program is open to students in grades K through 12. All PREP families should have received registration materials. Please bring or mail in completed registration forms for each child and tuition fee to the PREP Office as soon as possible. Discounted tuition period ends on June 30.

If you are new to the parish or will have children entering kindergarten or grade 1 in the Fall, please stop in our office for information and registration materials, or call 215-493-5204. We will also need a copy of the child's Baptismal certificate unless he/she was baptized here at St. Ignatius Church.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

PRAYER FOR OUR NATION

God, Our Father, Giver of Life, we entrust the United States of America in Your loving care. You are the rock on which this nation was founded. You alone are the true source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Reclaim this land for Your glory and dwell among Your people. Send Your Spirit to touch the hearts of our nation's leaders. Open their minds to the great worth of human life and the responsibilities that accompany human freedom. Remind your people that true happiness is rooted in seeking and doing Your will. Through the intercession of Mary Immaculate, Patroness of our land, grant us the courage to reject the "culture of death". Lead us into a new millennium of life. We ask this through Christ our Lord,

SUMMER MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister

Email: fklose@siparish.org

Saint Augustine once said, "He who sings, prays twice". Congregational singing makes such a difference in our greatest prayer, the liturgy, and we cannot do it without those who minister to the congregational singing. Our music ministry groups are on hiatus for the Summer, but please consider joining one of them upon our return in the Fall.

Adult Choir - sings two times a month at various Masses and at special occasions.

Youth Band - Music ministry group sings at three 6:00 p.m. Masses each month. While the music is popular among young parishioners, the group is not limited to any age range. We encourage instrumentalists and voices that can lend their talents to a contemporary style.

First Light - Nicknamed "the Folk Group" by some, the group First Light sings at the 9:30 Mass three times a month.

If you are interested, please ask any music minister after Mass, or contact Frank at fklose@siparish.org.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith.

We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the 'life rose' on the altar or by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping it off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the Adoration Chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication.

"For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me." (Mt: 25:35-36).

"Jesus said: 'Let the children come to Me, and do not prevent them; for the kingdom of Heaven belongs to such as these.'" (Mt: 19:14).

The two great commandments are to love God and love our neighbor as ourselves. The original sin was one of pride. Ask yourself this question: DO I LOVE GOD? DO I LOVE MY NEIGHBOR AS MYSELF?, actually, do I EVEN love myself? We need to get rid of our pride and love unconditionally as children love; such is the meaning of Matthew's gospel - we need to love our parent, God, the way children love their parents; be obedient, listen, pray, and if we do these things our culture will change and we will position ourselves to spend eternity with our Heavenly Father. If not, ????

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
