THE HIDDEN LIFE OF CHILDHOOD

St. Paul talks about “the days when Christ was in the flesh,” but the Gospels show little interest in the private life of Jesus.

They show even less interest in His childhood. They believe His a miraculous birth to put Him in the same league with the other great people; there is a story about His being lost in the temple. They repeated that story probably because it was too well-known to be ignored. St. Luke turned the incident into a demonstration of how precocious little Jesus was. But for all the rest of His childhood, St. Luke sums it up with the generic statement, “the child grew in wisdom and grace.”

Childhood was not an important stage of development then as it is now. All boys were raised together by all mothers of the extended family compound until age 12, when they were turned over to the men. Childhood was merely a time of waiting to take their place as adult members of the community. Nothing special going on, nothing worthy of biography.

And yet, as we now know, a lot goes on in childhood. Some of the most important things happen then which determine the projection of a whole lifetime. What we call the “hidden life” of Jesus was not hidden to God. All those youthful “hidden” experiences are what prepared Jesus for his very public adult life.

Jesus did not just happen to end on a cross...he earned his way there. He did not one day wake up to the fact of being God’s own Son...He gradually arrived at that recognition through daily prayer with God.

Jesus learned patience by waiting to grow up. He learned His own limitations when He lost at games. He learned forgiveness when a playmate gave Him a black eye. He learned to handle criticism when His mother called Him a dreamer. He learned how to shake off rejection when people questioned His unusual parentage.

It was all of these childhood things, and the way He handled them, that enabled Him to grow into a virile adult who could endure crucifixion.

Jesus was able to do the things He did as an adult because of the way He did things as a child. He did not stumble into history full-blown as the Gospels seem to suggest. No, He doggedly drove Himself into celebrity through a daily grind of eating, sleeping, praying, preaching, reaching out, and pulling back - doing whatever was called for.

It is the same for us. We gradually grow in grace by traveling the dusty road of everyday events.

Palm Sunday of the Lord’s Passion March 29, 2015

[Christ Jesus] humbled himself, becoming obedient to the point of death, even death on a cross.
~ Philippians 2:8

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the 'life rose' on the altar by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrance to the church and in the adoration chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication.

"Human life is good and to be protected. All medical decisions ought to reflect this core belief." (Advanced Medical directives: USCCB)

We have a medical culture that has lost its way in respecting life. Many physicians support abortion; even more support and prescribe contraception and perform sterilization; yet, even more participate in IVF procedures and some participate in physician assisted suicide. On top of that, health care professionals are losing the battle over conscience clause protection in the courts. The Catholic Medical Association upholds the principles of the Catholic Church in both science and medicine. Support Catholic physicians who follow church teaching.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

BOOK 'N BEAN... Wish you had more time to read great books? How about one per month? Join us on the last Tuesday of each month to discuss the club's book of the month!

Our group meets in the Religious Education Office (across from the school cafeteria) from 7:30 - 8:45pm for a relaxed discussion. Bring your own refreshments. Contact Linda Stewart at dremom@verizon.net or call her at (215) 968-3577 with any questions. Our schedule is as follows:

March 31st: The Ear of the Heart (Mother Dolores Hart, OSB & Richard DeNeut)

April 28th: The Boys in the Boat (Daniel James Brown)

May 26th: Gone Girl (Gillian Flynn)

THE FAMILY FULLY ALIVE PRO LIFE/PRO FAMILY MEETING

The gathering will take place from 7:15pm to 8:30pm in the Old Rectory in the room above the Adoration Chapel on the 2nd and 4th Monday evening for each of the ten months leading up to September 2015.
