DIVINE JEALOUSY

The Lenten readings are specifically chosen to instruct us. During the first week of Lent, we followed Jesus into the desert and witnessed His triumph over temptation. Last week, we went up a mountain and glimpsed the glory of God. This weekend we enter the temple and witness the results of a concrete manifestation of what a temple dedicated to the glory of God should look like.

St. John places the cleansing of the temple at the beginning of the Gospel, consciously foreshadowing all that is to come. As the story unfolds, St. John interrupts to make sure the reader understands that potent symbolism. First, St. John assures us that Jesus cleanses the temple to fulfill the words from Psalm 69: "zeal for your house will consume me." More importantly, St. John tells us that Jesus is the true Temple and will rise on the third day. St. John links the beginning of Jesus' ministry with his Passion and death. His Gospel is filled with sweeping fulfillment intent on revealing Jesus to his readers.

Taken literally, the scene in this Gospel is alarming, graphic and violent. Jesus makes a whip, drives out the animals and overturns the tables of the money changers, scattering their coins. As the temple is cleansed, so is our image of a gentle, compassionate, and loving Jesus. All four Gospels record the story of Jesus cleansing the temple, so we know it must have held great significance. So how do we reconcile this angry Jesus with His peaceful message of forgiveness and love?

Remember the first reading this weekend from the Book of Exodus? God has just issued His commandments and proclaims that He is a jealous God. Jealousy, as we know it in human terms, is a powerful passion that can lead to destructive behavior. We witness Jesus consumed with just such a jealousy as He stomps around the temple destroying everything in sight.

How often we feel powerless against the lure of sin...we resolve not to gossip, yet we are drawn into a destructive conversation. We would never steal from a store, yet we trample on others to strengthen our reputation at work. We would never kill, yet we hurt a child's self-esteem with a critical word. We need to be confronted with a cleansing love that is stranger than our sin.

Jesus knows how to cleanse us of our sin without destroying the essence of who we are. Just as we might correct a child for their own good, so Jesus rebukes us. Shame leads to conversion. After cleansing the temple, our interior self is renewed. We are once again on holy ground.

Lent is our time for repentance and renewal. We invite Jesus into the temple of our souls. We confess our sins and allow Him to sweep away the debris. We ask Him to probe our motives and intentions with his Holy word. It penetrates our hearts like a two-edged sword, revealing our crooked inclinations and misplaced intentions.

Even as this cleansing causes us pain, with St. John, we proclaim Jesus as Lord. It is because He is our Savior that we can welcome Him. He loves us and claims us with divine jealousy.

LENT MUSIC "NOTES"

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
Email: fklose@siparish.org
Phone: 267-670-3413

Our Lenten music selections reflect the major themes of the season of Lent: prayer, fasting, mercy, and making whole our lives. As Jesus is tempted in the desert and refuses to give in, so must we avoid temptation. As Jesus is transfigured before his apostles, so must we move ourselves closer to the image of God that we get to know through Jesus.

"From Ashes to the Living Font" (#474) utilizes the melody from "Lord, Who Throughout These 40 Days", giving us the flexibility to sing a verse that matches the day's Gospel reading. "Change Our Hearts" (#493) is a powerful reminder that we must use these 40 days of repentance to make sure that we have our hearts in the right direction. "Merciful God" (#489) is a reminder that our salvation comes from God alone. The refrain has three options: one specifically for Ash Wednesday, one for gathering, and one for communion.

Our Mass setting this Lenten season is Mass of Joy and Peace, found in the hymnal #209, #211, #212, #215, and #216.

If anyone is interested in joining any of the parish music ministries (choir, youth band, First Light), please contact Frank at the email address above.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the 'life rose' on the altar by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrance to the church and in the adoration chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication.

"Our Lord calls us to imitate Him more perfectly by witnessing to the inherent dignity of every human being, including those whose actions have been despicable...we are called to oppose the culture of death by witnessing to something greater and more perfect...a gospel of life, hope, and mercy." (USCCB Secretariat).

Today we have a crisis of language. Our culture is trying to redefine life, pregnancy, conception, death, marriage and tell us what is 'politically correct'. However, what may be 'PC' may not be 'JC' (Jesus correct). We have been living with some age-old definitions and language that was instituted at the creation of the world by the Creator. Man may make a law or language that is popular or 'tolerated' by a majority, but that does not make it morally correct. We need to pray. We need to defend life, dignity and language; if we remain silent, the changes will become permanent and our future generations will not know the truth.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

BOOK 'N BEAN... Wish you had more time to read great books? How about one per month? Join us on the last Tuesday of each month to discuss the club's book of the month!

April 28th: The Boys in the Boat (Daniel James Brown)
