why are you standing there
looking up at the sky?
This Jesus who has been

THE 13TH APOSTLE

As the eleven Apostles began the process of choosing a successor to Judas, they did well to pray. And their prayer began, "You, Lord, Who knows the hearts of all." Yes, God knows the hearts of all human beings and every part of their hearts. But the Apostles, the first and closest followers of Jesus, had come to know something about the heart of God, the loving heart of God that was glimpsed in the words and deeds of Jesus, the Son of God, in His dying on the cross and rising from the dead.

So when it came to selecting a successor to Judas, the Apostles needed someone who could be a powerful witness to the saving love in the heart of Jesus, someone who could be a loving witness to the command of Jesus, "As I have loved you, so you also should love one another." Remember what St. John tells us in this weekend's second reading quoting the words of Jesus, "Beloved, if God so loved us, we also must love one another."

The eleven Apostles were very wise to narrow the choice of a twelfth Apostle to only two men, both of whom were well-qualified, and after a reverent prayer and some casting of lots, they had a successor to Judas. Now Matthias was numbered among the Apostles.

This select and elect group knew that the body of believers needed to be unified before it could preach the message of unity in Jesus Christ by word and example. This is what Jesus had prayed for at the Last Supper: "Holy Father, keep them in Your name that You have given Me, so that they may be one just as We are one."

Matthias was God's choice to be part of their ministry of unifying love in Jesus Christ. But we too, each of us, have been chosen in their ministry of love for God and others that we see in the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ. God chose us at our baptism for a life in union with God's beloved Son. God chose us to be God's children, daughters, and sons of God, brothers and sisters of Jesus Christ. In a sense, the words in this weekend's first reading apply to each of us, "May another take his office." In baptism, each of us received a share in the "office," the ministry of Jesus Christ. We received a share in His continuing work of glorifying the Father through our words and deeds of love for others. "May another take his office." The "another" is you and the people sitting around you. Jesus Christ empowers you and everyone who attends weekend Mass to take up the "office," the vocation of acting for Jesus Christ in this world, of being other Christs. We humbly make Him seen and heard and felt when we live and walk and play. For although Jesus has ascended into heaven, He is not on vacation there. He continues to work now through the thoughts of our hearts, the words of our mouths, and the work of our hands to accomplish God's will for this world.

Like Matthias and the other Apostles, we have been called to respond to God's choice of us. Our baptismal faith is the enduring source of our life in God's service, a life that draws its power for good in the love God has for us. Our life of service endures unto everlasting life with Matthias and all the saints, including the ones sitting around you.

MUSIC "NOTES"*Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music MinisterEmail: fklose@siparish.org

After 40 days and 40 nights of restless anticipation, we can finally sing an energetic "Alleluia" loud and clear. The music of the Easter season is filled with many Alleluias as we particularly commemorate Jesus' rising from the dead. "The Strife is O'er", "Jesus Christ is Risen Today", and plenty of our other Catholic favorites echo throughout the entire season, not just Easter Sunday as we have 50 days of Easter joy before Pentecost.

We would still love to have more choir members or musicians consider joining music ministry. We have three groups: parish choir, parish youth band at 6:00 Masses on Sunday evenings, and the 9:30 music group called "First Light."

Those interested in the choir or youth band - we are currently practicing the hour before Masses in which we sing, in lieu of evening practices. We hope to accommodate everyone's schedule by doing this. If you think you are too busy, I would be happy to work with anyone's schedule if you can help make a joyful noise to the Lord and help lead the congregation in song. If you are interested, please contact me at the email address above, or speak to any music minister after Mass to express your interest.

From the Religious Education Office

The Religious Education Office is open on Sunday mornings at 7:00 a.m. and Monday to Thursday at 9:30 a.m. Note that the office is closed on Friday.

Our Vacation Bible School Camp will take place from June 22nd to 26th, 2015, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., for children who will be entering grades K to 5 this fall. We will focus on God's power to provide, comfort, heal, forgive, and love us forever in the program Everest Expedition 2015. Registration forms have already been given to the children. If you do not have one, please stop in or call the PREP office. WE ARE HAVING A REGISTRATION NIGHT ON WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, FROM 6:00 TO 7:30 P.M., INSIDE THE BLUE CANOPY ENTRANCE. We are in great need of ADULT volunteers to help out.

PREP TEACHERS AND AIDES NEEDED: We need some very generous people to staff our program for the 2015-2016 school year. Please pray about this and consider offering your time and talent for the following sessions:

Sunday	8:00 a.m. to 9:15 a.m. 10:45 a.m. to 12:00 noon
Monday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.
Wednesday	6:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m.

If you are an adult Catholic who lives your faith and would like to pass on your love for God to the children of our parish, we would love to have you join our crew. If you are considering teaching, we do offer a Catechist Orientation Course in August to help to prepare you for this awesome task. If you need more information or would like to chat about it, please contact Annmarie at 215-493-5204.

REGISTRATION FOR 2015-2016 PREP YEAR...

Our Religious Education program is open to students in grades K through 12. All PREP families should have received registration materials. Please bring or mail in completed registration forms for each child and tuition fee to the PREP Office as soon as possible.

If you are new to the parish or will have children entering kindergarten or grade 1 in the Fall, please stop in our office for information and registration materials, or call 215-493-5204. We will also need a copy of the child's Baptismal certificate unless he/she was baptized here at St. Ignatius Church.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call to put your name on our mailing list.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all St. Ignatius parishioners to share in both promotion and prayer regarding life. Our vigil lights donations are used to support our pro-life good works and pro-life not for profits. Anyone may also dedicate special intentions at our Rose for Life Intention changed weekly. Envelopes for the special intentions are at all the exits of the Church and in the Adoration Chapel. Please stop by Our Lady of Guadalupe Grotto and offer a prayer to the Mother of God and the Church, and the Patroness of the Americas.

"Pope Francis has captivated the world with his humility, warmth, and compassion for each person. Vivid accounts of his tenderness for the 'least of these' - the elderly, the imprisoned, those with disfiguring disabilities, the unborn, and many more - seize our attention. Why? At the heart of each of these interactions is a truth which resonated in our hearts, revealing to us something essential to understanding ourselves and our purpose. We are loved." (Cardinal Sean O'Malley)

Let us remember that May is the month of Mary and that she is closest to Jesus and if we need anything we can ask her and she will bring it to her Son for His consideration. We need, as a society, to renew our devotion to her. If everyone who came in and out of this Parish would kneel down and say ONE Hail Mary to Our Lady of Guadalupe, we could change the world.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

BOOK 'N BEAN

Wish you had more time to read great books? How about one per month? Join us on the last Tuesday of each month to discuss the club's book of the month!
