INTEGRITY

You may have seen “Keeping Them Honest,” a regular segment on CNN hosted by Anderson Cooper. During each segment, Cooper interviews an invited guest and questions them about their positions on certain issues, their beliefs, values, and goals. Then, like an external conscience, Cooper reads or replays a past interview in which the person seems to directly contradict their present responses. Caught by their own words, the guests hem and haw in an effort to clarify their position and save face.

Cooper holds powerful figures accountable for their words and actions, meanwhile, believers in Jesus are held to an even higher standard of integrity. That standard is given voice in our second reading from St. John, “Let us love not in word or speech but in deed and truth.” Believers are to surrender themselves to the light of God’s truth. In that light, we are challenged to integrate our words without deeds and beliefs without actions. This challenge is an exceedingly difficult one. Past numbers of us say one thing and do another or promise or intend something but do not follow through. We are too often a people of mixed messages whose words ring hollow because they are contradicted by our works.

Through the centuries, countless people have suffered deprivation, humiliation, torture, and even death rather than sacrifice their integrity in any way. We call them martyrs and we admire them. The quality of their character may seem out of reach for most of us. But the gospel challenge to love in word and deed and truth has not been directed toward a few, it is for all of us.

The challenges of integrity lie within our grasp. For we are not alone or unaided in our efforts. We are not solitary reeds blowing in the wind; rather, we are united to Jesus as branches to a vine.

Through our connection to Christ and to one another, and by grace, we grow into whole and holy persons. It is important to always remember, we cannot chop up our lives into little compartments, separating beliefs from actions or church-going from church-living. Nor can believers bound to the one vine separate their lives from the lives of others. We are a living entity, a complementary organism, and by virtue of our union, we are responsible for one another. This will require that we agree to keep one another honest - not in the manner of Anderson Cooper’s television segment, but as brothers and sisters who care enough to be true to Christ, true to ourselves, and true to one another.

ROSARY

All are invited to recite the rosary after the 9:00am Mass. For those who can stay longer, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is also recited.

From the Religious Education Office ... The Religious Education Office is open on Sunday mornings at 7:00 a.m. and Monday to Thursday at 9:30 a.m. Note that the office is closed on Friday.

Our Vacation Bible School Camp will take place from June 22nd to 26th, 2015, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., for children who will be entering grades K to 5 this fall. If you do not have one, please stop in or call the PREP office. We are in great need of ADULT volunteers to help out. We also need a very limited number of volunteer junior aides (Grades 6 - 12). PLEASE SEND IN YOUR REGISTRATIONS ASAP.

PREP TEACHERS AND AIDES NEEDED: We need some very generous people to staff our program for the 2015-2016 school year. Please pray about this and consider offering your time and talent for the following sessions:

If you need more information or would like to chat about it, please contact Annmarie at 215-493-5204.

REGISTRATION FOR 2015-2016 PREP YEAR...

Our Religious Education program is open to students in grades K through 12. All PREP families should have received registration materials. Please bring or mail in completed registration forms for each child and tuition fee to the PREP Office as soon as possible.

If you are new to the parish or will have children entering kindergarten or grade 1 in the Fall, please stop in our office for information and registration materials, or call 215-493-5204. We will also need a copy of the child's Baptismal certificate unless he/she was baptized here at St. Ignatius Church.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call to put your name on our mailing list.

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP...All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith. We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

MUSIC "NOTES"

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
Email: fklose@siparish.org

After 40 days and 40 nights of restless anticipation, we can finally sing an energetic "Alleluia" loud and clear. The music of the Easter season is filled with many Alleluias as we particularly commemorate Jesus' rising from the dead. "The Strife is O'er", "Jesus Christ is Risen Today", and plenty of our other Catholic favorites echo throughout the entire season, not just Easter Sunday as we have 50 days of Easter joy before Pentecost.

We would still love to have more choir members or musicians consider joining music ministry. We have three groups: parish choir, parish youth band at 6:00 Masses on Sunday evenings, and the 9:30 music group called "First Light."

Those interested in the choir or youth band - we are currently practicing the hour before Masses in which we sing, in lieu of evening practices. We hope to accommodate everyone's schedule by doing this. If you think you are too busy, I would be happy to work with anyone's schedule if you can help make a joyful noise to the Lord and help lead the congregation in song. If you are interested, please contact me at the email address above, or speak to any music minister after Mass to express your interest.

ADORATION CHAPEL... We are truly blessed at St. Ignatius to have an Adoration Chapel. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, someone is spending quiet time with our Eucharistic Lord, Jesus! You can too, anytime day or night - just come in and visit. Also if you would like to come at a set time each week, please consider taking one of the following hours:

Sunday - 3:00pm; Monday - 10:00am; Tuesday - 3:00am, 9:00am, 3:00pm, and 6:00pm; Friday - 6:00pm; Saturday - 4am and 12:00pm. Also, if you would like to be a partner on Monday at 6:00pm, Saturday at 7:00pm, or Sunday at 8:00pm, that would be appreciated. For more information about Eucharistic Adoration, kindly call Marianne Kloc for more information at 267-346-0152.

New Information for Chapel Closing: To find out if the Chapel is open or closed, kindly call 215-493-3377, extension 221. A recorded message will give you the latest information. We are phasing out calling our Adorers, so please call the information number provided and keep it handy for your convenience. It would be helpful to call anytime the weather is inclement to see if we have decided upon an extended closing. Thank you for your cooperation and commitment to Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

THE LIFE IN THE SPIRIT SERIES... All are invited to the Life in the Spirit Series. You are invited to experience a personal Pentecost. Come and see what the Lord has in store for you.

Joel 3:1 "I will pour out My Spirit upon all mankind."

Rev. 22:17 "Let the one who thirsts come, receive the gift of life-giving water."

When: Begins Tuesday, May 5, 2015 at 7:00p.m.

Continues every Tuesday through June 16, 2015.

Where: Holy Trinity School Hall, Osborne and Stockham Avenues, Morrisville, PA 19067

To register: Call Marie Guaragno (215) 295-6283 or (215) 295-6900.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all St. Ignatius parishioners to share in both promotion and prayer regarding life. Our vigil lights donations are used to support our pro-life good works and pro-life not for profits. Anyone may also dedicate special intentions at our Rose for Life Intention changed weekly. Envelopes for the special intentions are at all the exits of the Church and in the Adoration Chapel. Please stop by Our Lady of Guadalupe Grotto and offer a prayer to the Mother of God and the Church, and the Patroness of the Americas.

"If someone who has worldly means sees a brother in need and refuses him compassion, how can the love of God remain in him?" (1 John 3:17) "No one has greater love than this than to lay down one's life for one's friends." (John 15:13)

We are called to love one another as we love God. We seriously need to evaluate our definition of love and sacrifice as we look at our culture and see how many divorces, broken families, abortions, abuse, and addiction pervade our spaces. What has happened in the name of 'tolerance' and 'political correctness' and 'non-judgmentalism'? We have lost our way and need to look at Jesus to find our way back as He is the way, the truth and the life. Don't forget our Respect Life collection on Mother's Day next weekend. Proceeds will go to Parish pro-life activities. Check out our new altar frontals.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

BOOK 'N BEAN

FURNITURE DRIVE A HUGE SUCCESS!
SOCIAL ACTION COMMITTEE

The semi-annual furniture drive was a huge success! Preliminary information indicated we would possibly fill one truck and that was what we scheduled. When the pick up crew arrived at the homes of the donor families, most of them had more items than initially stated, so much so, that a second large truck had to be requested. While this might have presented a problem via scheduling for some of the donors, it was a problem that was a bonanza for the recipient organization: The Fox Chase Cancer Center who distributes the furniture to their less affluent patients. The Center also sells some of the furniture in their thrift shop to underwrite some of the expenses for the treatment of these less affluent patients. We apologize for the inconvenience that this caused for anyone, but believe that the success of the drive and the good accomplished was worth it. We hope you understand.

Thank you to all the donors and to those involved in the drive! The spirit of St. Ignatius Parish is felt far beyond the parish boundaries. We do not know them but they surely know you and isn't that what Christian Charity is all about?
