WORTH WAITING FOR

Advent is a time for waiting. We are waiting for the twofold coming of Christ: at Christmas and at the end of the world. That is one reason why Christianity is a religion of waiting, of hope, of expectation. No matter what wonderful things God has done in the past, we expect even more wonderful things in the future.

This religious attitude fits well with our national character. Americans are, above all, a hopeful, future-oriented people. A survey showed that 80% of us are waiting for some significant thing to happen; getting married, having a baby, finding a job, retiring. At every stage of life, we find something to look forward to.

One might think that since we seem to live in expectation, we ought to be experts at waiting. But anyone who thinks that, has never waited in a grocery line, waited for a bus or train, waited for a light to change or for the mail to come. We have to wait, and the frustration with the present time, the eagerness to be somewhere else, often makes us edgy and unpleasant.

But we have to wait, so we might as well get used to it. We might wait more peacefully if we understand what we were doing and tried to do it better.

First, we must come to terms with the fact of time. Although there is no such thing as time—there are no calendars in the sky, no clocks in space—grain grows at a certain rate, fruit ripens at a certain speed, people mature in a temporal process. Absolutely everything is governed by time, but only humans wait. In exactly the same ten minutes that puppies play and trees grow, humans anxiously wait. That is because puppies and trees naturally know how to live in the present. They are perfectly content to be doing whatever they are doing at any moment. We humans have to accept that everything happens at precisely the right time. The right time for it - even if not always the right time for us.

While we are waiting for anything, pray about something; your wayward child or aged parent, starving children, people without jobs. There are seven billion people to pray for, and there are millions of things going on that could use your prayer: the economy and world peace.

With prayer, you get closer to God and help these people and situations. You expand your own heart to billions of people and events. Instead of focusing your attention on fretful waiting, you join all of humanity and all of creation in this simple instant and bring them all to God's attention.

Now isn't that worth waiting for?

FIRST FRIDAY CONFESSION/MASS

This Friday, December 4th, is the first Friday of the month. Confessions will be heard on Thursday, December 3rd, from 7:00 to 7:30 PM. The Mass schedule is listed above.

CELEBRATE THE JUBILEE YEAR OF MERCY December 8, 2015 - November 20, 2016

The Archdiocese of Philadelphia invites everyone to celebrate the Jubilee Year of Mercy through a special commitment to pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy each day of the Holy Year. Along with praying for your personal, family, and parish intentions, please consider including in your prayers the following intentions:

- For a renewal of the regular reception of the Sacrament of Confession for all Catholics of the Archdiocese
- For an increase in vocations to the priesthood and the sanctity of all priests
- For the conversion of those who do not yet know the love of Jesus Christ

What is the Chaplet of Divine Mercy?... The Chaplet of Divine Mercy is a prayer that uses traditional Rosary beads to meditate upon and ask for the infinite mercy of God that was poured out upon the world through the passion of Jesus Christ. The prayers of the Chaplet were given by Jesus to St. Maria Faustina Kowalska (1905-1938) with the promise of many powerful graces as a fruit of this prayer. To learn more about the Chaplet and our Archdiocesan celebration of the Jubilee Year of Mercy, visit: ArchPhila.org/mercy.

Please pray for all priests of the Archdiocese, especially this weekend and Monday, with the following prayer from the Roman Missal:

*Lord our God, who is governing your people,
Make use of the ministry of Priests,
grant to these men
a persevering obedience to your will,
so that by their ministry and life
they may gain glory for you in Christ.
Who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit,

RETIREMENT FUND FOR RELIGIOUS SECOND COLLECTION NEXT WEEKEND

Christian Giving

A donor to the Retirement Fund for Religious writes, "We thank God for every religious sister who taught us in school, not only for our ABCs, but also to love God." Show your support for the senior Catholic sisters, brothers and religious order priests who have made a positive difference in so many lives. Please Share in the Care and give generously to next week's second collection.

ADVENT GIFT-GIVING MASS

On Tuesday, December 1, at 7:00pm, we will have our annual Advent Gift-Giving Mass. We ask each family to attend the Mass and bring a gift (toys or clothing) for a poor child who would not otherwise receive a new gift for Christmas.

Representatives from St. Katharine Drexel Parish in Chester and Sacred Heart Parish in Camden will be present to accept your gifts. Please do not wrap the gifts, but you can put them in gift bags, as long as the gifts can be seen. You are invited for refreshments in the auditorium after Mass. Even if you are unable to attend the Mass, you can still bring a gift to the sacristy in Church during the day.

St. Ignatius has always been very generous in helping people who have far less than we do. Let's continue this great tradition!

AID FOR FRIENDS

Are You Looking for a Worthy Charity?
Please Consider Aid for Friends...

Aid for Friends provides free meals for the elderly, ill and homebound in the greater Philadelphia area. Our next meeting to assemble meals will be held on Thursday, December 10th from 9am - noon in the church auditorium kitchen. We are truly blessed, but more helping hands are always needed and welcome.

Our annual Christmas potluck will be held immediately after our meeting. Please bring food to share as well reconnect and take a few moments to enjoy each other's company.

Your gifts and talents are always appreciated. If you would like additional information on how you can help, please call Kathy, 215-321-0116 or Jayne, 215-321-5739. See you on December 10th!

"For it is in giving that we receive." - St. Francis of Assisi

From the Religious Education Office

The Religious Education Office is open Sunday through Thursday. Note that the office is closed on Friday.

Our annual ADVENT GIFT-GIVING MASS, which benefits the children of St. Katharine Drexel Parish in Chester and Sacred Heart Parish in Camden, will be on Tuesday, December 1, at 7:00 p.m. Please come and bring a new toy for a needy child. There are refreshments after the Mass in the auditorium.

PREP CHRISTMAS PAGEANT: Our Christmas Pageant is scheduled for Thursday, December 10, at 6:30 p.m., in Church. Come and let yourselves get into the true spirit of Christmas.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
 By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life, to pray for the gift of life, and to pray for all those who struggle with beginning of life and end of life issues, especially since they are at the forefront of our spiritual warfare. If you have a special intention for life, notify us at lruppersberger@gmail.com or through one of the sacrificial envelopes at the entrances of the church and your petition will be placed weekly at the prolife Rose of Life pedestal.

"The courage and grace shown by women who choose life - in the face of fear, uncertainty, parental or partner intimidation, seemingly insurmountable odds - make them today's HEROES! They are joined by the many who counsel, support, and nurture them both before and after the birth of their child. Such self-giving love...is powerfully transformative of mother, of child, of families, of cultures." (USCCB)

We need to give thanks for crisis pregnancy centers and those who labor there out of love. The Community Women's Center of America has saved over 280 babies so far this year...280 children that would have been aborted!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
