GOD FITS BEST

The God and the world we meet in our first reading this weekend looks nothing like ours. Elijah begs bread from a stranger and God rewards her with bread and oil until the drought is over. In our world, Elijah would be fed at a shelter, the widow would get food stamps, and God would not play any part.

Whenever our experience of the world is radically changed, then our experience of the God who made sense of that old world must also change. Otherwise God becomes irrelevant to the world.

When the planes crashed into the towers of New York and changed the mindset of America, old religionists assumed that God was punishing us for our sins. But we know that if we had had the correct information, we could have aborted the terrorists. We would not have bothered God.

Every nation considered itself to be special to God. The Jews consider themselves a chosen people. America called itself the "city on a hill" giving light, instruction, and hope to other nations. We thought we were a political instrument of God. But we now know that all nations are equidistant from God. Each has its own task and destiny.

Each person in the world feels particularly close to God, loved by God and that leads to a feeling of being the most important. Even when facts prove that to be untrue. Competitors in every arena appeal to God for special consolation. But God does not play favorites.

Now, if we can no longer use God to advance our personal or natural agendas, then what do we know without God? We know that the world is a wondrous but dangerous place, that humans are between animals and angels, that life is an adventure doomed by death, that love is a fantastic but fragile affair.

God does not micromanage every action. Nor does God manipulate nations in some international chess match. And with individual people, God does not command every thought, word, and deed. God gives us freedom to choose, then includes our every yes and no within His larger freedom to make things come out right.

Since God allows creation so much leeway, disasters are always possible. Each of us will surely die, and we can kill the planet before that. We don't need someone to take care of us or heal our wounds or be like us only better. We need someone to adore.

And what does God need from us? Nothing. What might God want from you? Not your righteous works or vulgar sins, not your excuses or explanations, not your sacrifices or penances, not your monstrous failures or noble efforts. God does not want your good intentions.

God wants you!

On Tuesday, December 1, at 7:00pm, we will have our annual Advent Gift-Giving Mass. We ask each family to attend the Mass and bring a gift (toys or clothing) for a poor child who would not otherwise receive a new gift for Christmas.

Representatives from St. Katharine Drexel Parish in Chester and Sacred Heart Parish in Camden will be present to accept your gifts. Please do not wrap the gifts, but you can put them in gift bags, as long as the gifts can be seen. You are invited for refreshments in the auditorium after Mass. Even if you are unable to attend the Mass, you can still bring a gift to the sacristy in Church during the day.

St. Ignatius has always been very generous in helping people who have far less than we do. Let's continue this great tradition!

ST. IGNATIUS PARISH APPEAL 2015-2016

Recently, you should have received a letter regarding our parish appeal. While we were a little late getting started with last year's appeal, we are running this year's appeal on time. The 2015-2016 annual parish appeal began on October 11, 2015 and will run until January 31, 2016. This is one of our largest sources of income, aside from our normal Sunday collections, and is needed for the daily operation of our parish. This year, our parish appeal goal is $175,000. These funds will be used to offset our operational costs such as utilities, insurances, building maintenance, grounds upkeep, as well as many other operational obligations. In addition, these funds will help with future infrastructure upgrades, such as building maintenance on the Church, the pointing on the school, and the completion of the upgrades to the school entrance. I ask that you do your best with what you have for this critical fundraiser. I know, as in the past, I can count on your financial assistance. If you do not receive your letter, please contact the rectory office at 215-493-3377, ext. 211. Appeal envelopes will also be available at each of the exit areas of the church.

~Msgr. Shoemaker

As of our fourth week of the Parish appeal, 166 families have contributed $43,015.00 toward our goal of $175,000.00. You can place your contribution in the mail or in next week's Sunday collection.

Thank you for your generosity!

If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

As you may have already noticed, we have placed a recycling bin next to the Thrifty Irishman clothing bin in the parking lot. This recycling program is a community-based initiative to help raise money for our Parish.

The following are accepted: newspapers, magazines, shopping catalogs, junk mail, office and school papers, white envelopes and most paper that isn't laminated.

Please do not place cereal/soda cartons, food wrap/containers, tissue products, plastic or glass into the bin.

ST. IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH SCHOOL

"High Achievement ~ Higher Purpose"

The month of November reminds us of the Feast of All Saints Day, a Holy Day of Obligation, which prompts us to keep in mind all those ordinary people who did extraordinary things and have attained heaven. We remember our most recent saints: Pope Paul II, Pope John XXIII, and Father Juniper Serra. All Souls Day on November 2nd calls Catholics to remember in prayer those who have died and need our prayers in order for their souls to be cleansed for them to attain heaven.

Coming Events:

"Success Starts Here!" Come check us out. Open House will be Tuesday, November 10th from 9:00 - 11:00am and 6:00 - 8:00pm. Information is available by calling 215-493-3867.

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES
Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
Email: fklose@siparish.org

Today's Gospel is about the poor widow who still managed to give despite meager means. Jesus taught us that simply giving from one's surplus is much different than putting our whole being in to the Church, which is a Church of the poor for the poor.

"Gather Your People" (#837) reminds us that all people make up the one body of the Church. That includes the rich and the poor. Even the poor widow in today's Gospel still did what she could to help others, even with modest means herself.

"Blest Are They" (#735) is a reminder that the Beatitudes tell us that those who are poor indeed inherit the Kingdom of God.

Our Communion hymn, Psalm 34, "The Cry of the Poor" (#47) is a beautiful reminder from the Psalmist that the Lord hears the poor and lowly. It fits well with today's Responsorial Psalm, "Praise the Lord, my Soul!" that the Lord protects the lowly. "We Are Called" (#807), appearing frequently in our repertoire since the social justice message is strong in this series of Gospel readings, is a fitting closing hymn.

As we approach the holiday season, I encourage you to consider joining our parish music ministry for the celebration of Christmas. We will once again have a Children's Choir sing the 4:00pm Vigil Mass and the Adult Choir sings at the 12:00 Midnight Mass. The music is built around our favorite Christmas hymns, and we would love for you to take part.

If interested, please email Frank at the address above, or leave a voicemail at his home number of 215-333-1259.

Contact Linda Stewart at dremom@verizon.net or call her at (215) 968-3577 with any questions. Our schedule for the 2015-2016 academic year is:

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
 By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites all parishioners to pray for life, to pray for the gift of life, and to pray for all those who struggle with beginning of life and end of life issues, especially since they are at the forefront of our spiritual warfare. If you have a special intention for life, notify us at lruppersberger@gmail.com or through one of the sacrificial envelopes at the entrances of the church and your petition will be placed weekly at the prolife Rose of Life pedestal.

At the origin of every human being is not something haphazard or chance, but a loving plan of God. Does anyone really think that the existence of the human person, and more specifically of individuals, is a random event of 'nature'? Does anyone think that the Creator of the Universe and all that is in it doesn't have a 'master plan' for all of His creations and creatures? If we do believe that, then what can one say when more than 56 million people created by God have been aborted since 1973. Doesn't anyone see that just 'perhaps', just 'maybe' this process may be interfering with God's plan by replacing it with OUR plan. But then, of course, we would have to sacrifice OUR desires and choices in deference to that of the Almighty God.

Let us pray for life issues and speak out against this atrocity.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
