BECOMING LIKE CHILDREN

Jesus said that we had to become like children to enter the kingdom. But in order to do that, we have to know what He meant by "children" because it is not what we mean.

In the time of Jesus, the attitude toward children was multivalent. A child was an object of love. A child was sometimes a burden, always a responsibility. A child was fun to watch and a joy to play with. He was an investment, since he would soon work in the family system. She was an insurance policy for parents in their old age. All this was not clearly thought out. There was no theory of childhood; it was simply a normal part of communal life.

Throughout history, childhood has been viewed in different ways. In early years, a child was considered an immature adult. They were often dressed that way, treated that way, trained that way. Later, children were considered noble savages. They were thought to be naturally good, taught to express themselves without hindrance. Then some began to imagine children as victims of parental mistakes and thwarted parental longings.

And what would a kingdom of these children look like? Well, the first bunch would be dressed in adult clothes, have worried looks and be discussing the state of the kingdom. The second bunch of kids would form groups, write graffiti and let the garbage pile up. The third bunch of kids would form a circle and try to convince each other that they were okay.

Of course, none of these kids are what Jesus had in mind as models for the kingdom. We have to give up our theories and simply look at what children do as they go about being children.

The first childhood experience is the elemental feeling of existing; it is the surprise of being part of an amazing, interconnected combination of things.

The children experience being closely connected with other human beings. Whether it is mother, father, or babysitter, the child feels accepted, wanted, validated.

Adults experience children as innocent and naïve. They don't know right from wrong, friend from enemy. They are blissfully free of prejudice, morality, civility. They accept whatever is.

A kingdom composed of these delightful creations would look like a kennel of happy puppies. From this perspective, becoming adults would seem like a fall from grace. If children are innocent, spontaneous, and trustful, then adults who are experienced, dutiful, and prudent, would be lesser humans. But surely the kingdom calls for responsible adults.

We would be in a quandary if our only choices were ignorant children or selfish adults. But there is a stage beyond childhood and maturity. It is called wisdom. Or second, naïveté. It knows bad from good, but it knows that good finally triumphs. It knows that life hurts but that hurts are healed. It knows that we must earn our keep, but that all is finally a gift, that we should take care of ourselves - but that we finally depend on God.

FORTY HOURS EUCHARISTIC DEVOTIONS

On Sunday, October 11th, our Parish will begin its Annual Forty Hours Eucharistic Devotion after the 11:30 Mass. Evening prayer will conclude our day on Sunday at 7:30 PM, Monday at 7:30 PM and Tuesday at 7:30 PM. Our solemn closing of the Forty Hours on Tuesday evening will include a candlelight procession outside the church.

Father Matthew Guckin, Staff Member of the Archdiocesan Office for Catholic Education, will be the homilist. Father's theme for the 40 hours will be "The Eucharist - God's Passion for Us, God's Mercy Toward Us."

As part of our Forty Hours, on Monday, October 12th at 1:15PM in the church, our parish will be conducting a special celebration of the SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING OF THE SICK for people (regardless of age) who suffer from any chronic or acute physical, emotional or medical problems. We also encourage anyone who is advanced in years to attend.

During the Forty Hours, the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed 24 hours a day in the church. The Adoration Chapel will be closed during this time. Individuals who signed up for adoration in the Chapel on Sunday after the 11:30 Mass until Tuesday after the outside procession - are asked to go to the church for adoration, instead of the chapel.

Mark your calendar now for your family's time with the Lord Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. Please make every effort to bring your family to the three night devotions - a wonderful opportunity for prayer to the Lord for your family needs.

Just a reminder that our 6pm Mass continues, however our EDGE and high school group will not start meeting frequently until October 4th. Registration is available online for both groups - please fill out the forms and bring them to our first meeting on October 4th. These forms will be key to provide information to me about the youth interested in our events.

As always, I still am in need of adults to chaperone our events. An adult can be anyone over the age of 21 with needed clearances.

This year I will be working with St. Andrew's Parish at the Festival of Praise that they have monthly. This is an hour of praise and adoration. It is a very powerful experience and I encourage all youth and families to attend. The first one of the year will be October 15th from 7:30 - 8:30 at St. Andrew's Church. I will have flyers and more information as we get closer.

To kick off the Year of Mercy, the local Bucks County Catholic Churches will join together for a "Day of Mercy." This is open to all youth in 7th-12th grade. I know a lot of schools ask for service hours, so what better way to get them than through this wonderful day of service. We meet at St. Bede's in Holland at 9:00am on Saturday, October 24th. Youth will then go to different work sites to complete service events. It should be a great day! If you are interested in attending, please let me know and I'll let you know how to sign up online.

On October 25th, we will be going to Shady Brook Farm for the Haunted Hayride. More information will be coming within the next few weeks.

I know summer 2015 just ended, however, I am already looking into big events for summer, 2016. Steubenville's theme next year will be "Thirst" and I am very excited to have some youth attend. Be on the lookout for further information about the Steubenville trip.

From the Religious Education Office ...The Religious Education Office is open Sunday through Thursday. Note that the office is closed on Friday.

FIRST PENANCE/RECONCILIATION: All parents of students who will be receiving the Sacrament of Penance/Reconciliation this school year are expected to come to the Parent Meeting for necessary information to help prepare your children for this wonderful Sacrament. The last Parent Meeting is scheduled for both PREP Sunday sessions (8:00 a.m. and 10:45 a.m.) on October 4, in the school cafeteria. No information packets will be given to the children.

FIRST EUCHARIST: All students, who will be receiving their First Communion in May, and their parents, are invited to the FIRST EUCHARIST CANDIDACY MASS on Saturday, October 24, at the 5:15 p.m. Mass.

FORTY HOURS: closes on Tuesday, October 13, at 7:00 p.m. Students who received the Sacraments of Confirmation and Holy Eucharist last spring are encouraged to wear your Sacrament clothing and join in the procession. Please be in the auditorium by 7:15 p.m.

PREP BOARD: is meeting on Tuesday, October 6, at 7:00 p.m. in the Religious Education Center.

SAFE ENVIRONMENT: The "Protecting God's Children" training session will take place on Tuesday, October 27, from 7:00 p.m. to 9:30 p.m., in Church. If you still need this training, please register at www.virtusonline.org.

The 2015-2016 PREP YEAR has begun.

To Parents of Students in grades 7 - 12: In grades K - 6, students learn about God and the doctrines of our Faith in an age appropriate manner. If this is the only Religious Education that a child receives, how can he/she ever learn to develop a teenage or adult relationship with God? Parents, is the God you believe in still the God of your youth? Please give your older children the chance to know a "big" God. Send them to PREP through grade 12.

Parents, are you aware that we have a "Special Needs" PREP class that meets on Wednesdays at 6:30 p.m.? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please give Annmarie a call.

ST. IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH SCHOOL

"High Achievement ~ Higher Purpose"

The Feast of St. Francis on October 4th reminds us of his Prayer for Peace. How appropriate it is that the Fruit of the Holy Spirit that we are studying for the month of October is Peace. Just what is this gift you might ask? Peace means not just freedom from trouble but everything that makes for a man's highest good. Peace is more than the absence of war or something felt in the mind. It is a way of living life in a proper relationship between man and God as well as man and man. To know what He expects from us, say the words of St. Francis daily, "Lord, make me an instrument of Your peace..."

Coming Events:

October 4th through October 9th is "Fire Prevention Week" - remember to run a family fire drill!

Monday, October 5 - 2:00pm - Assembly on the new parish recycling program.

Wednesday, October 7 - 1:15pm - 8th grade service project at D'youville Nursing Home at Grey Nun.

Friday, October 9 - 7:30 to 10:00pm - 7th and 8th grade dance.

Looking towards next school year?! Open House will be held on Tuesday, November 10 from 9:00 - 11:00am and 6:00 - 8:00pm. Pass the word to family, friends, and neighbors. Registration begins in January for our Full Day Kindergarten and Pre K Programs. Do not be left without a spot.

Calling all alumni to St. Ignatius of Antioch School! We want to reconnect with you. Send contact information to: siprincipal@sischool.org. Thank you!

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES
Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister

"Save Us, Savior"

Now that the Pope has come and gone, we will be able to get back to teaching some new Mass parts. There are three "Mystery of Faith" acclamations sung in the liturgy. When I arrived, "When We Eat This Bread" was the only one used. A year ago we introduced, "We Proclaim Your Death...". One still remains.

The full text is "Save us, Savior of the world, for by Your cross and resurrection, You have set us free." Our sung form repeats the words "Save us" to provide musical balance. After we learn this acclamation, we will be prepared for all three.

The readings today all point to one thing: The Sacrament of Matrimony. So, much of our hymnody today revolves around love. We begin with "Love Divine, All Loves Excelling", the common melody we sing with "Alleluia, Sing to Jesus" and other hymns. "God in the Planning" is the same melody as "Lord of all Hopefulness" and reflects on the Sacrament of Marriage. "Set Your Hearts on the Higher Gifts" is a reflection on St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians, perhaps the most popular reading at weddings. "Joyful, Joyful" is a song of praise to the "God of Glory, Lord of Love."

*A Red Rose Can Be Placed
By The Respect Life Altar*

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention to dedicate a plaque for one week at the "life rose" on the altar by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the adoration chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication. Please stop by to pray for life at our Lady of Guadalupe grotto at the entrance of the Church.

This is RESPECT LIFE WEEKEND!!! What does it mean to respect life? Well, respect by definition means to honor, to value, esteem, admire, revere, hold in high regard. Life by definition is existence, being, animation, person, human being, individual. Then of course comes the question, "how did we get life?" We were created in the image and likeness of God and the Holy Spirit, the Lord and Giver of Life who 'breathed the soul' into the person.

So, why is it that we "need" a Respect Life Weekend? Maybe, because our culture and many in it do NOT respect life; we have legalized abortion on demand; we live in a contraceptive culture; we do not honor end of life care and have five states that have legalized physician assisted suicide. Since 1973, over 56 MILLION babies have been killed in the name of 'choice' - or maybe that is another word for free will which we all have. Maybe through prayer we can turn this trend around, but it is too late for those babies who were created by the Lord and Giver of Life who are no longer here!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

ADORATION CHAPEL

We are truly blessed at St. Ignatius to have an Adoration Chapel. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, someone is spending quiet time with our Eucharistic Lord, Jesus! You can too, anytime day or night - just come in and visit. Also if you would like to come at a set time each week, please consider taking one of the following hours:

Sunday - 3:00pm; Monday - 10:00am; Tuesday - 3:00am, 9:00am, 11:00am, 3:00pm, and 6:00pm; Thursday - 9:00am, 4pm; Friday - 6:00pm; Saturday - 8:00am, 12:00pm. Also, if you would like to be a partner on Monday at 6:00pm, Saturday at 7:00pm, or Sunday at 8:00pm, that would be appreciated.

Kindly call Marianne Kloc for more information at 267-346-0152, if you would like more information or if you would like to substitute at your convenience.

Our Chapel is open except when the weather is inclement or we are celebrating the Easter Triduum. To find out if our Chapel is open or closed, please call 215-493-3377, ext. 221. A recorded message will give you the latest information. We suggest you keep this number handy for your convenience.
