DEFINED BY SUFFERING

If you have watched reruns of the TV series, Mash, you might remember the scenes where the medical staff perform triage each time a helicopter arrives with more wounded from the Korean War. After they do a quick visual evaluation, the staff assesses each patient's physical condition and assigns their treatment to the medical professional best suited to help them.

Contemporary programs like ER and House utilize a similar process when patients present themselves in the emergency room. Doctors can be heard saying, "broken leg in room 3" or "third degree burns, curtain 2" or "head trauma in intensive care." In the process of evaluation, television reflects the real-life activity of hospital emergency rooms, trauma centers, and even the battlefield. Those in need of care are identified by their wounds. Only when their suffering is addressed and attended, can one see beyond their struggle to discover who they really are.

This weekend's first reading and gospel feature two figures who were willingly defined by suffering, for it was through their suffering that they were able to show their true face to the world. Isaiah never names the servant he has described in his four songs. However, the prophet has described in vivid detail the suffering he endured for the sake of his ministry. In order to speak a word that would rouse his contemporaries, he would endure their rejection; to establish justice for the nation, he would let himself be beaten and mocked. To be the light of the nation and the liberator of prisoners, he would accept being spat upon. To bring healing and wholeness to the blind, the deaf, and the lame, he would not shield himself but would give himself over to the wrath of those he had come to save.

This Isaian servant is only fully identified in the person and through the mission of Jesus. The servant would provide the template for us to imitate the salvific suffering of the one whom St. Peter identified as the Christ. No sooner was that noble declaration spoken by St. Peter than Jesus began to define Himself as Christ in terms of suffering. He would be rejected, would suffer greatly, and be killed.

Unaware, as yet, of the true nature of Jesus' identity, Peter would try to set aside the unthinkable notion of a suffering Christ. Yet not only would Jesus persist in defining this salvific service in terms of suffering, He also insisted that His followers should be identified in the same way. Through their suffering for being His disciples, Jesus' followers become who they are - living and breathing reflections of Him in the world. Disciples accept suffering because of the unity with Jesus that suffering creates and the redemption it helps to reflect.

But what is the suffering that is ours to embrace? What is the suffering that would allow us to become our truest and most Christian selves? We are threatened with suffering from three directions - from our own body, which is doomed to decay and dissolution and cannot ever do that without sending our pain and anxiety as warning signals; from the eternal world, which may rage against us with overwhelming and merciless forces of destruction; and finally from our relationships with other people. This latter suffering is perhaps more painful than any other.

Jesus, who immersed Himself completely in the human condition, experienced every sort and every degree of suffering in order to translate that experience into an eloquent expression of love. That suffering identified Him as the Christ, the Savior. Our suffering, when united to Him, identifies us as His own.

ST. IGNATIUS OF ANTIOCH SCHOOL

"High Achievement ~ Higher Purpose"

From the desk of Mrs. DiTommaso:

Each month, as a school, we will be focusing on a virtue in our lives. At the First Friday Mass, two students from each grade will be recognized for their living of that virtue.

This year, the virtues are based on the Fruits of the Holy Spirit. God freely gives us these gifts in Baptism, Confirmation, and at other times in our lives. When we use these gifts, we produce the Fruits of the Holy Spirit which include: Love, Peace, Patience, Kindness, Generosity, Faithfulness, Gentleness, Self-Control, and Joy. We have also chosen to add integrity for this school year.

Our Virtue for September is Love. Love is an undefeatable benevolence and unconquerable good will. A person who loves, seeks the highest for others no matter what he or she does and gives freely without asking anything in return.

We ask you to pray this prayer, from Pope Saint John Paul II, for our students:

Let us pray for the young people, to whom the Lord extends His invitation to follow Him more closely, that they may not be drawn away by the things of this world, but may open their hearts to the loving voice that is calling them.

Events for this week:

Tuesday, September 15 - 7:00pm - New Parent Social.

Thursday, September 17 - 7:00pm - DARE Parent Meeting.

Friday, September 18 - elective classes begin.

New Initiative! St. Ignatius School is partnering with Conwell-Egan High School to build a bridge between the high school and the grade schools. Our Algebra I class will be Skyping with their Algebra I and the teachers will team-teach the course. The class will earn one high school credit at the end of the course before graduation. Some of our students will be invited to be a part of CE after school Art Club and Robotics Club. Some projects will be shared between our Latin class and theirs.

We are very excited to be able to offer our students a taste of what high school will be like. As events unfold, I will keep you informed.

Tours of our School are available by calling 215-493-3867 and asking for Helene.

See you at the Parish Picnic. Stop by our table and say hello!

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister

Email: fklose@siparish.org

"Sound the Bell of Holy Freedom"

You may have noticed that the World Meeting of Families prayer card in your pews has something new on the reverse side of it. "Sound the Bell of Holy Freedom" was chosen as the official hymn for the World Meeting of Families. Parishes across the diocese are singing the hymn as we lead up to the World Meeting of Families at the end of the month.

The text of the hymn was written by Norbertine Priest Andrew Ciferni, a South Philadelphia native who formerly worked at Archmere Academy in Delaware. The music was composed by Normand Gouin, a former director of music at Old St. Joseph's Church in Philadelphia. After Labor Day weekend, we will sing the hymn at the opening and close of the Mass, verses 1-3 at the start, and verses 4-6 at the end of Mass, as the whole Archdiocese unites in one voice to "Sound the Bell of Holy Freedom".

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith. We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention can dedicate a plaque for one week at the "life rose" on the altar by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the adoration chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication. Please stop by to pray for life at our Lady of Guadalupe grotto at the entrance of the Church.

"Only with prayer - prayer that storms the heavens for justice and mercy, prayer that cleanses our hearts and souls - will the culture of death that surrounds us today be replaced with a culture of life." (USCCB).

We all know about prayer; we have all heard about it; most of us learned to do it as children, but what is it, really? A lifting up of minds and hearts to God? A personal conversation? A wish list of all the things we need and/or want? Or, is it something greater...a personal relationship...a 'being' in the presence of our Lord and Savior, our Creator, our Father in heaven. He already knows what we need and or want! He already knows what is going on in the world and why! What He wants is our love, our hearts, our surrender and our obedience because He IS our Father. He wants communion with us; He wants to be IN us and us IN HIM. We need to approach it from a different place; if we did, the world would be a different place!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

ADORATION CHAPEL

We are truly blessed at St. Ignatius to have an Adoration Chapel. 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, someone is spending quiet time with our Eucharistic Lord, Jesus!
