MIRACLES

Jesus did not heal the sick, cast out demons and calm storms in order to prove that He was God. At the time He lived, many holy men and women were believed capable of doing miracles and no one would have concluded that they were God. In the New Testament, miracles are all about power and the mediating of power. No one ever claimed that Jesus could not do the miracles described in the Gospels. They did, however, accuse Him of using the power of Satan and not the power of God in his miraculous activity. They said this because He performed miracles on the Sabbath and some felt that such activity violated the Sabbath observance. No one employing the power of God to perform miracles would do so in violation of the Sabbath. More important than this, however is to understand Jesus' miraculous activity as symbolizing His ushering in of the Messianic age. From a faith perspective, Jesus does this because He is in fact the Messiah.

We read in this weekend's Gospel that Jesus heals a person who is both deaf and suffering from some sort of speech impediment. The ritual Jesus used to bring about the healing was rather traditional and included taking the man aside, using touch, saliva, and incantation. Many healers would have done similar actions. The point here, however, is not so much that Jesus can mediate God's power and thus bring about healing. The point is that this is just one more example of Jesus demonstrating that the Messianic age is here and that He is the Messiah. Here He enables the deaf to hear and the mute to speak. In other places He will make the blind see and even bring the dead back to life. He's far from more than just another miracle worker. In fact, He does not want to be known as a miracle worker and thus instructs the crowds not to tell anyone what He has just done. They are astonished at what Jesus has done but in most cases it is for the wrong reasons. He will not be able to be fully understood until after His suffering, death, and resurrection then His true identity as Messiah and Son of God will be fully revealed.

These miraculous actions of Jesus are not done to demonstrate that He was some sort of magician who could exercise exotic power at will. Their purpose is far different from that. With Jesus the New Age has begun. He calls this New Age the Kingdom of God. It is something that has been promised especially by the Old Testament prophets. It will not be a world of business as usual. The oppressors will be brought low and the lowly will be raised up. We believe that time has come and is at least partially here. Whose values do we enhance? Whose kingdom do we promote? Are we helping people to really see, hear, and enhance the good news? Do we believe Jesus really is the Messiah?

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES

Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister

Email: fklose@siparish.org

"Sound the Bell of Holy Freedom"

You may have noticed that the World Meeting of Families prayer card in your pews has something new on the reverse side of it. "Sound the Bell of Holy Freedom" was chosen as the official hymn for the World Meeting of Families. Parishes across the diocese are singing the hymn as we lead up to the World Meeting of Families at the end of the month.

The text of the hymn was written by Norbertine Priest Andrew Ciferni, a South Philadelphia native who formerly worked at Archmere Academy in Delaware. The music was composed by Normand Gouin, a former director of music at Old St. Joseph's Church in Philadelphia. After Labor Day weekend, we will sing the hymn at the opening and close of the Mass, verses 1-3 at the start, and verses 4-6 at the end of Mass, as the whole Archdiocese unites in one voice to "Sound the Bell of Holy Freedom".

CHARISMATIC PRAYER GROUP

All are invited - as we sing God's praises and share in His Word and His Love in an intimate community of faith. We meet every Tuesday from 7:00-8:30PM in Room 2F in the Meeting Center. Deacon Bob Skawinski is our spiritual Prayer Group Director.

SOLDIERS PRAYER

*Dear Lord, there's a young man far from home, called to serve his nation in time of war; sent to defend our freedom on some distant foreign shore.
We pray You keep him safe, we pray You keep him strong, we pray You send him safely home...
For he's been away too long.*

There's a young woman far from home serving her nation with pride.

Her step is strong, her step is sure.

We pray you keep her strong.

We pray you send her safely home...

For she's been away too long.

Bless those who await their safe return.

Bless those who mourn the lost.

Bless those who serve this country well,

No matter what the cost.

God Bless America!

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life Committee invites you to pray for life. We also invite those interested in having a special 'life' intention can dedicate a plaque for one week at the "life rose" on the altar by filling out a dedication envelope and placing it in the collection basket or dropping off at the rectory. The requested donation is $10 and envelopes are at the entrances to the church and in the adoration chapel. Let's not have a week go by without a dedication. Please stop by to pray for life at our Lady of Guadalupe grotto at the entrance of the Church.

"Do not fear: I am with you; do not be anxious: I am your God; I will strengthen you, I will help you, I will uphold you with my victorious right hand." (IS 41:10).

We know who wins this spiritual warfare in the end. We all KNOW the definition of family; we all know that children are the supreme gift of a marriage between a man and a woman only and we all know the truth. Whether or not we accept it, embrace it, live it and defend it is another matter. We can do all things through Christ who strengthens us. We need to pray for the family, the basic building block of our society; as we approach the World Meeting of Families, let us pray that the world will witness what God's plan for family really is.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
