EXPOSITION OF BLESSED SACRAMENT:

24 Hours a day in Adoration Chapel

LOVE ALONE LASTS FOREVER

Scripture says that Jesus "went about doing good," but from every direction, evil rose up to thwart Him. And on this particular day, people even tried to kill Him.

Which raises the inevitable questions: If God is good, why does God permit all the evil in this world? Is evil stronger than good? Is God not powerful enough to control evil?

But these questions betray our bias toward power. We try to understand God by giving God our own attributes to the nth degree. We know some things, so God is all-knowing. We are somewhat good, so God is all-good. We have some power, so God is all powerful.

But wait! How does power fit in that group? Goodness and knowledge are spiritual concepts but power is a physical force. Just because we think power is desirable, does that necessarily mean God things so? When did we get such an idea?

...From God's own Book. After all, the first book of the Bible tells how God created the heavens and the earth...a lot of power! God's love is mentioned later, so we accept power as God's basic attitude, and then add as much love to the divine mix as we are able.

But Genesis was not written first - Exodus was. People first recognized God as the loving presence who led them from slavery to the Promised Land. Only then did they think: "This must be the same God who created all there is." They know God first as love, then admitted as much power as necessary.

The New Testament, the new portrait of God, focuses on that image of divinity. Jesus comes as the gift of love. God does not force His way into our world; God makes His way through our world in the person of His Son, Jesus does not make the earth tremble where He walks, he does not break a bruised reed. Instead of power lunches, He eats with the outcasts. He does not force acceptance of His message but respects people's freedom. He does not overpower His enemies but accepts torture and execution. He rejects the initial temptation to forge stones into bread and the final temptation to defeat the cross.

Theologians ask why the life of God's Son took this peculiar path. The assumption is that since God is all good, He could not have caused this; but because God is all-powerful, God must have simply allowed it to happen.

What if we simply accept that God's own Son uses persuasion instead of force; that he prided Himself on being humble; that he suffered instead of striking back? Let us simply accept that what we consider a human flaw is actually the height of divine perfection.

MUSIC MINISTRY NOTES
Dr. Frank Klose ~ Music Minister
 Email: fklose@siparish.org

In a recent article in Slate Magazine, the benefits of singing were discussed:

"Music is awash with neurochemical rewards for working up the courage to sing. That rush, or "singer's high", comes in part through a surge of endorphins.

Beside one's own personal spiritual benefit, helping provide music ministry to others can help others pray as well.

We would love for you to consider joining our music ministry program in 2016, whether it be in the 9:30 First Light group, the parish choir, or in the youth band.

If you have any interest or any questions, please email Frank at the email address above, or leave a message at 215-333-1259.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed
 By The Respect Life Altar

Please pray for an end to abortion. Please support Respect Life and our committee: If interested in joining us, please contact Les Ruppertsberger at lruppertsberger@gmail.com or feel free to join us in the Meeting Center (Old Rectory) room 2F on the first Monday of each month at 8PM.

Pope Francis has declared 2016 as the Year of Mercy. The Sunday after Easter is Divine Mercy Sunday. There are many opportunities to receive a plenary indulgence during this year, especially during Lent. Ash Wednesday is this Wednesday, February 10th. Today is Quinquagesima Sunday for those who recall the older liturgy - literally meaning 50 days before Easter - a day of preparation preceding Lent. What will you 'give up'? What will you do? Select something today and get ready.

Every day should be a day of some type of sacrifice; after all, look at the sacrifice HE made for us - could you suffer and die for someone you loved? HE did...for YOU! For all of us...for our sins. For our sake, HE became sin and died to defeat it, so we could have the gift of Resurrection which we see on that feast day. Remember, ALL of us will get our 'resurrected' bodies back at the Second Coming...even all the aborted babies. Then the separation will occur, and some will be with HIM for all eternity, and some will not. Is your choice to be a sheep? Or a goat? It is YOUR choice, not HIS will. What will you decide?

Now during Lent is a great time to ponder the answer to this question. The way we live is making that choice!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
