EXPOSITION OF BLESSED SACRAMENT:

24 Hours a day in Adoration Chapel

From the Desk of Father Jon...RESURRECTION

Jesus lives! Jesus is risen! God has raised up Jesus and made Him Lord and Christ!

These are a few of the very earliest creedal formulas with which the first believers in Jesus enunciated their faith in the resurrection. As this central tenet of all our believing and all of our living is celebrated this weekend and in the weeks to come, preachers and the people in the pews may find it challenging to wrap their minds and hearts around this mystery.

Of course, we will hear and believe what Peter will proclaim in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles, that the life and death and resurrection of Jesus have brought forgiveness to sinners. We will also agree as Paul reminds the Corinthians that the risen Jesus empowers believers to set aside malice and wickedness so as to live in sincerity and truth. We will also rejoice as the young man featured in this weekend's Gospel from St. Mark announces to the women at the tomb that Jesus has been raised. He goes before, and we shall see Him, he assures us.

However, at the heart of all our proclaiming and celebrating and remembering, the fact remains that the resurrection is a call from God into the depths of human suffering and dying. Rise up says God. You are dead, but I call you to live.

This is what we celebrate this weekend - the call to life from our God. Take away this summons and make it of something smaller and less than the absolute ultimate or all-powerful, and you have taken away the last hope for humankind.

In order to live and breathe within the embrace of that hope, in order to hear that powerful summons of God calling us to life, we must first hear and deal with another word - death. We must look death in the face and not be cowed. We must see the deaths of our loved ones and even our own dying not as a last word, but as the last utterance that listens desperately in the darkness for what can be spoken only by God - Resurrection!

We must realize that every path we walk in life will lead to the edge of the precipice of death. We ourselves cannot bridge this precipice; we ourselves cannot make this precipice a passage. These salvific achievements have been made for us by God in His Son, Jesus, Who is both our bridge and our passage. While the freedom and life afforded us in Jesus are indeed wondrous, there is also pain. For just as resurrection proclaims true freedom, it also reveals the choices that bind us. It alerts us to our sin and selfishness; resurrection tells us that our only refuge against sins is God. Nothing of our own devising can help us to shake ourselves free from our sins.

However, if we are able to face the threat to our security that comes with God's call to resurrection, if we are willing to recognize our absolute poverty before God, if we are willing to recognize that resurrection is not something we can merit but the merciful rescue of God for the lost, if we are able to surrender all our masks and defenses and give up every pretense of independence, then God will indeed lift us up and out of ourselves and out of our dying to life.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION March 26-27, 2016

What is mercy? Jesus Christ is the face of the Father's mercy. Mercy has become living and visible in Jesus of Nazareth. Whoever sees Jesus sees the Father and Jesus by His words and His actions. His entire person reveals the mercy of God. (Pope Francis). Mercy is a wellspring of joy, serenity and peace. Mercy reveals the mystery of the Holy Trinity. Mercy is the supreme act by which God comes to meet us. Mercy is the fundamental law that dwells in the heart of every person who looks sincerely into the eyes of his brothers and sisters on the path of life. Mercy is the bridge that connects God and man, opening our hearts to the hope of being loved forever despite sinfulness. "His mercy endures forever."

Mercy refers to benevolence, forgiveness and kindness in a more secular language. The motto for the year will be "Merciful, like the Father." Pray the Divine Mercy Chaplet daily at 3:00pm or a portion whenever you can. Next Sunday is Divine Mercy Sunday, another opportunity for a plenary indulgence; come join our parish at the praying of the Chaplet at 3:00pm in the Church.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For all those entrenched in spiritual warfare; that St. Michael the Archangel will defend them in the battle; we pray to the Lord.

TRIVIA NIGHT IS BACK! SAVE THE DATE!

Time for us to test all the knowledge we have in our heads! Join us on Saturday, April 16th in the St. Ignatius auditorium.

A Red Rose Can Be Placed By The Respect Life Altar

The Respect Life committee appreciates all the support, donations, prayers, and vigil candles lit daily that contribute to the support of prolife activities throughout the area. We ask and pray that we as a parish will become a bright prolife beacon in Bucks County and the entire area. In fact, if you wish to become more involved, why not join us at the Respect Life committee meetings monthly on the first Monday of each month at 8:00pm on the second floor of the Old Rectory? We welcome you.

There is no Resurrection without the Crucifixion. We are all called to carry our own crosses and, like Jesus, we all have our Simeons to help us. It may be a family member; it may be a friend, or, it may be a stranger, or...it MAY have been one of the babies who were aborted in the name of "choice" and are now no longer alive in this world to help. They are alive, however, in the eternal time of Heaven and will rise again at the second coming. I think we will all be very surprised at our own judgement at who is in Heaven and what God's plan was for us and the world, and how we either cooperated with that plan or interfered with it! May God have mercy on us all.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.
