Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time February 17, 2019

First Reading: Jeremiah 17: 5-8

The real heart of true religion is the fact that God is a person's sole final refuge. The prophet says that one who trusts in human beings is actually cursed.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 15:12, 16-20 Paul argues against the ideas of some of the Corinthians that there is no resurrection of the dead. He says that without Christ's resurrection our faith is in vain.

Gospel: Luke 6:17, 20-26

In His "sermon on the plain," Jesus begins with a series of beatitudes and woes. A blessed condition comes from the kingdom of God. The woes are really a list of cautions concerning who can or actually does belong to God.

SANCTUARY CANDLE

The Sanctuary Candle burns for the Special Intentions of Linda Chamberlain

Saint Polycarp Feast Day: February 23rd

Saint Polycarp,
sometimes Christ
seems so far away
from us. Centuries have passed since he
and the apostles
walked the earth.
Help us to see that he is close to us always and that we can keep him near by imitating
his life as you
did. Amen

FISCAL CORNER

As you may know, we have modernized our online giving program while reducing fees and saving time. We are using Parish Giving, who is a leading provider of secure, user-friendly online giving systems specializing in religious and charitable organizations.

Those participating in online giving have found the program to be more convenient and allows them to maintain full control over their account. Parish Giving also allows you to generate a giving report, contribute to Christmas and Easter as well as all other special collections, in addition to allowing you to change the method and/or timing of the funds transfer.

Our online giving program is a great success and our hope is that more parishioners will enroll. You may do so by going to the St. Ignatius of Antioch website at http://www.stignatius.church and clicking on the Parish Giving logo. For those participating in our Parish Giving program, you may print a participation receipt from the parish giving website to place in the weekly collection basket. Thank you all for your generosity towards our parish with your Sunday Gifts!

It will burn for one week. The memorial will be published in the Bulletin.

Amen

Only three more weeks before we show the 'Gosnell Movie': The Worst Mass Murderer in History, right here in Philadelphia. This movie was in the theatre last year and did fairly well at the box office, but many did not want it to be seen by too many as it tells the truth. While there is nothing too graphic it is a testament to the truth as to what the abortion industry is doing to our country, medicine, women and babies. It may not be exactly what you want to see early on a Saturday morning, our committee thought it would be worthwhile to show this movie for those who may not have seen it and perhaps for those who have already seen it, so join us and bring a friend. In the meantime, our parish auction is coming up on Friday March 1 so join us at the Rose Bank Winery for a fun night and raise money to support St. Ignatius parish.

Rose of Life Intention: Thanks for the gifts we receive from Holy Spirit.

"Many parents want perfect children. Our culture is obsessed with perfection—a superficial perfection. Photos are airbrushed, and social media sites depict seemingly perfect lives. God calls us to seek perfection, too. He does not call us, however, to perfection of appearance or abilities, but to perfection in love." It seems that our lives have been diminished to what appears on social media and others opinions and perceptions of what is posted. We don't seem to appreciate the dignity of our being created in the image and likeness of God and we are called to be perfect as our Heavenly Father is perfect, not in school or sports or looks or arts or music...yes, we need to value gifts and use them accordingly as to His plan for our gifts in the world He created. Since perfection is not achievable, we should strive for excellence. There will be perfection in Heaven.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: In this Lenten season, may God show us the way of compassionate respect for all human life; We pray to the Lord
