God our Father, Thank you for calling Griffen Schlaepfer and Andrew Lane, and Michael Lewis to prepare for priesthood. Grant them the grace to grow closer to You through daily prayer. Help them form their personalities as credible witnesses to others. Bless them while they study Your word and the teachings of the Church, and give them generous hearts to serve Your people. January 27, 2019 – Third Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

First Reading: Nehemiah 8:2-4a, 5-6, 8-10

The prophet Ezra proclaims the Law to the people, which for them is God's Word. They show appropriate reverence while the Law is read.

Second Reading: I Corinthians 12:12-30, or 12:12-14, 27

The fact is that we are Christ's one Mystical Body, rich in diversity but needing each other's contribution toward unity.

Gospel: Luke 1:1-4; 4:14-21

After his introduction to the gospel, Luke brings in one of his principal themes: Jesus as teacher par excellence. There follows Jesus' self-proclamation in His hometown synagogue.

The Sacrament of Baptism is normally administered on Sundays at 12:45 P.M. Pre-Jordan class, for the first child only, is required for parents. Class is held on the first Monday of the month at 7:00 PM in room 2B on the 2nd floor of the Meeting Center. Parents, please call the rectory to register for the class or for a Baptism.

Lord hear our prayer for the sick in our community that they return to the comfort of good health:

ADULT Faith FORMATION

Why a program on the ‘theology of aging’? How does aging have a theology? Why should we respect the dignity of all persons, regardless of illness or circumstances at the ends of their lives?

Why is it that 6 states have legalized physician assisted suicide? Why are many more considering it? Why should the healthcare profession assist anyone in ending their own lives? Is this justice? Is this mercy? Is this empathy? Is this relieving pain and suffering? Come explore all of these issues and more at our program next Saturday, Feb. 2, 2019 at 9 AM in the school cafeteria with some coffee and refreshments as Dr. Janet Smith explores these issues (DVD) and then we can discuss. Bring a friend. Our committee meets the first Wed of every month at 7:30 PM in the Antioch center. If you have an idea for a program, let us know.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us

“While many Catholics want to help women and men heal from past abortions, most don’t know how to begin.” Learn how you can become an instrument of God’s mercy at www.usccb.org/bridges-of-mercy.

This healing is very difficult yet very doable. There are several ministries locally that are dedicated to assist in this healing, Rachel’s Vineyard and Project Rachel. If you don’t know who Rachel was, look her up. If you wish to refer someone to their ministry (as 1/3 women by age 45 have had an abortion in the U.S.) then refer them to their website. Listen to them; pray for them; walk with them; hold them; love them; pray some more and let them know that their God forgives them, loves them and that some day they will meet their children.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For all who suffer from participation in abortion: May they find healing and peace in God’s loving forgiveness; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For healing for all involved in abortions.

L.O.L.F Pro-Life Holy Hour

Come and pray with the staff of Legacy of Life during a silent holy hour every Thursday at 7pm in the Adoration Chapel. Please come take part in our mission of protecting the unborn and providing for women in need.

What we CANNOT do: Transport people in wheelchairs, be called as an emergency ride, do personal care (feeding, bathing, toileting, house cleaning, or respite care), respond on short notice. (If possible, please give us 2 weeks notice).
