Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading: Genesis 18:20-32

Abraham persists in his discourse with Yahweh, despite realizing his unworthiness to do so. In his bargaining for the salvation of the city, he discovers Yahweh's justice and mercy.

Second Reading: Colossians 2:12-14

Paul urges the community to hold fast to the true teaching they were given and not to rush to different ideas being proclaimed among them. By baptism we "died" with Christ but then we were raised to new life as He was.

Gospel: Luke 11:1-13

Luke encourages his Gentile readers to persevere in prayer, aware that they have only limited knowledge of the Old Testament and God as Father.

SANCTUARY CANDLE

The Sanctuary Candle burns in memory of Patrick Joy requested by Lee and Kevin Joy.

FISCAL CORNER

As we reach the end of fiscal year 2019 (ended on June 30th), we will take a look at the parish debt. This past year we were able to keep current with all Archdiocesan responsibilities, including parish assessments, liability and insurance premiums, as well as all operational and capital costs. In addition, we were able to make a $60,000 payment towards the Archdiocesan debt. The current parish debt as of June 30th 2019 now stands at $1,000,677. That obligation to the Archdiocese includes principal owed on the loan for the building of the parish center ($561,588) and overdue interest on that loan ($439,089). We have budgeted $80,000 for next fiscal year to continue to address that obligation. Thank you to everyone who financially supports our parish which allows us to address our debt, maintain our level of services, support our school, and make the much needed improvements around the parish property. As always, if you have any questions, please feel free to reach out and ask! – Gregory Lucidi, Parish Business Manager.

ADULT Faith FORMATION

The Adult Faith formation ministry invites any parishioner of St. Ignatius parish to join us at our meetings on the first Wednesday of every month to come up with new ideas and programs for our parish. We especially are in need of individuals that have some expertise or experience in marketing so as to better encourage our parishioners to join us for some information sharing and socialization. Do you know what week it is this week? I will give you a hint: it celebrates the 51st anniversary of the release of an encyclical? Do you know what an encyclical is? Do you know who the Pope was in 1968? Do you know the name of the encyclical from this time released dealing with Catholic Church teaching on contraception? Do you know what NFP is? Have you ever heard of it? The encyclical is Humanae Vitae... Of Human Life by Pope St. Paul VI. Read it... for free at Vatican.org. St Thomas Aquinas, pray for us Intercessory Prayer

Respect

Life

“O God, you are faithful, and you never abandon those who hope in you. I know that my redemption from sin and death has been purchased at the cost of your Son’s blood. In return for this priceless gift, I resolve today to renew my trust in your unfailing mercy.” USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities
“Trust in God’s Mercy” Prayer

If we truly wish to resolve and abolish anxiety and worry and fear in our lives, we need to hand all over to the Lord who tells us in the Bible to ‘be not afraid’. As the song of the same name tells us, ‘I go before you always, come follow me and I will give you rest’. How many times have we heard this song? Sung this song? And yet, we fear, we fret, we are anxious. Many of us are medicated for such anxiety. Jesus came to show us how to live as humans; He came to show us how to die as humans; He came to elevate our humanity back to the glory for which it was originally intended in the Garden before the Fall and sin and death. He restored us; yes we have to age; yes we have to work; yes we have to suffer, struggle and die, but death is but a door to new life and a new ‘heaven and a new earth’ where, if we decide to go there, we will live for all eternity in communion with the Holy Trinity. And, yes, it is WE who make that decision by how we live our lives, either according to God’s Word or the words of this world and evil and Satan. WE make the call. Choose wisely.

Our Lady of Guadalupe pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For all who suffer because of participation in abortion: May they come to know the mercy of God, who longs to forgive all our transgressions through the saving power of the Cross;
We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life: For healing from decisions of abortion and euthanasia.

Religious Education

From the Religious Education Office...

The Religious Education Office is closed during the month of July. It will reopen on August 1.

PREP registrations can be mailed or dropped off at the rectory. You can download information and the registration form (1 form per child please) on the Parish website (www.stignatius.church). Since July 1, the regular tuition cost applies. Click on PREP.

If you are new to the parish or will have children entering kindergarten or grade 1 in the fall, we will also need a copy of your child(ren)'s Baptismal certificate unless he/she was baptized here at St. Ignatius Church. Our Religious Education program is open to students in grades K through 8.

GRADE 8 Students: Parents, please encourage your 8th grade students to continue Religious Education after Confirmation. Confirmation is a beginning – not an ending.

“Special Needs” Class: Parents, are you aware that we have a special needs class that meets during the Wednesday PREP time at 6:30 p.m.? This class is for those students who would benefit from a very small group learning experience.

PREP CLASSES BEGIN ON SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 8; MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 9; and WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED: Parents, please don't be afraid to volunteer. We always need Catechists, Classroom Aides, and Door Monitors. In August, new Catechists participate in a Catechist Orientation Course, so you will not begin teaching “cold turkey.” Think it over and pray about it. We have several Catechists who have worked in our program for many years; it is truly a rewarding experience, and our students are great kids.

SACRAMENTS:

CONFIRMATION: Students in grade 7, who have been in Religious Education classes for several years, will prepare to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation this year.

FIRST RECONCILIATION and FIRST COMMUNION: Students usually receive these Sacraments in grade 2 after they have completed the grade 1 curriculum.

Parents, if your child has not been in Religious Education classes consistently, and you want him/her to receive the Sacraments, please speak with Annmarie (215-493-5204). We do make accommodations. No child will ever be refused.

GREY NUN MASS OF FAREWELL
