Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: II Maccabees 7: 1-2, 9-14

The whole theology of martyrdom and the resurrection of the just is taught to us by the statements of the Maccabee brothers to the king right before their executions.

Reading II: II Thessalonians 2: 16-3:5

Christ gives us “everlasting encouragement and good hope.” The writer asks his readers for their prayers and help in spreading the word of the Lord.

The Gospel: Luke 20: 27-38, or 20: 27, 34-38

The Sadducees ridicule Jesus’ preaching about the resurrection by asking Him a childish question. In His answer, Our Lord both teaches His opponents and demonstrates His faith in God’s life-giving power.

SANCTUARY CANDLE

The Church Sanctuary Candle burns in memory of Joan Roberts requested by Deacon Bob and Connie Skawinski.

Saint Gertrude Pray for Us Feast Day : November 16th

Gertrude, a Benedictine nun in Helfta, Saxony, was one of the great mystics of the 13th century. Together with her friend and teacher Saint Mechtilde, she practiced a spirituality called “nuptial mysticism,” that is, she came to see herself as the bride of Christ. Her spiritual life was a deeply personal union with Jesus and his Sacred Heart, leading her into the very life of the Trinity.

But this was no individualistic piety. Gertrude lived the rhythm of the liturgy, where she found Christ. In the liturgy and in Scripture she found the themes and images to enrich and express her piety. There was no clash between her personal prayer life and the liturgy.

FISCAL CORNER

As of week 5 of the Parish appeal, 159 families have contributed $52,500 toward our goal of $150,000. We are at 35% of this year's goal. We are behind last year's pace by $23,090 and have $97,500 to go to meet our goal. This critical parish financial appeal will run from October through the end of January. This is one of our largest sources of income, aside from our normal Sunday collections, and is greatly needed for the daily operation of our parish. You should have received our appeals materials in the mail. If you have not, there are appeal envelopes located in the entrances of the church. Please return your donation by placing this year's appeal envelope in the collection basket at Mass. You may also mail your contribution or drop it off directly to the rectory. Thank you for your help with this important operating fund appeal!

ADULT Faith FORMATION

During November, we also celebrate Thanksgiving, a national holiday where most families get together to give thanks for all they have. This holiday is not necessarily a liturgical or Church celebration, although many begin the day with the celebration of Mass and blessing of the food they will serve at dinner that day. But, in another context, Thanksgiving is preceding by one week the beginning of Advent, the preparation time for Christmas. For many, that preparation for Christmas is NOT a Church or liturgical celebration, but season of shopping and Christmas music and lights and food and friends and gifts and trees and decorations. There is nothing wrong with any of that, but the true meaning of the season is to prepare for 'the coming' of Jesus Incarnate of the Divine to become human to show us how to live and die in this world, so we may be happy with Him in the next. In that context, our committee is sponsoring our first ever 'mini-retreat' on Saturday Nov. 30, 2019 beginning with 8:30 AM mass celebrated by Fr. Bernard Taglianetti (yes, that one!) followed by continental breakfast in the church auditorium and two great talks by Fr. T. Over by noon. Come hear the REAL reason

Respect

"O St. Bakhita, assist all those who are trapped in a state of slavery; Intercede with God on their behalf so that they will be released from their chains of captivity. ... Provide comfort to survivors of slavery and let them look to you as an example of hope and faith."

Many think that slavery has ended, and while it may have changed in certain respects many are enslaved in other countries. Many are enslaved to pornography; many are enslaved to drugs, alcohol, abuse, neglect, nicotine, and many other substances and behaviors. Many are enslaved to sin. Jesus came to free us from sin. His law is the law of freedom, not restriction. If we follow Him we will be more free than if we do not. God wants us to be His children, not slaves- He came to set us free! Let us realized the dignity of each and every person in that they were created in the image and likeness of God.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For all victims of human trafficking: May they be delivered from their captivity and treated according to the great dignity which God confers on all his people; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For all who are somehow enslaved, that they may be free through Christ.
