Thirty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Wisdom 11: 22—12:2

God is merciful and He loves all His creatures. He gives them all a chance to repent after any wrongdoing they may have done out of this same merciful love.

Reading II: II Thessalonians 1: 11—2:2

God's grace makes us worthy of the Father's call. We are to be concerned about doing His work on earth much more than about guessing when He will come again at the end of time.

The Gospel: Luke 19: 1-10

The name Zaccheus means "clean." Ironically, the crowd of onlookers at this scene think of Zaccheus as "unclean," and thus they are shocked by what Jesus does. But here again is an instance of Our Lord searching out the lost to save them out of His great mercy.

SANCTUARY CANDLE

The Church Sanctuary Candle burns in memory of Marjorie J. DeFelice requested by Debora and John McConnell.

Saint Charles Borromeo Pray for Us

Feast Day : November 4th

Saint Charles Borromeo lived during the time of the Protestant Reformation, and helped with the reform of the whole Church during the final years of the Council of Trent. He also reformed the Catholic life of his diocese. Charles Borromeo was a member of the Medici family, but unlike many of his relatives, he devoted his life to the Church.

Our Outdoor Columbarium Niches, located in the memorial circle in the center of our cemetery, are now available for sale. Double granite front niches are intended to be used for the cremated remains of two persons behind a marble shutter. If you have any questions, or are interested in purchasing a niche, please visit our parish website at www.stignatius.church or call the Rectory at 215-493-3377.

WEDDINGS

Arrangements should be made at least six months in advance. Please call the rectory to make an appointment with one of the priests.

ANOINTING OF THE SICK

Parishioners are encouraged to let the rectory know when they are in the hospital, nursing home, or other medical care facility. Please contact the rectory if you or anyone you know might be ill, a shut in or unable to attend Mass on a weekly basis. The Holy Eucharist will be brought to anyone homebound.

FISCAL CORNER

As of week 4 of the Parish appeal, 143 families have contributed $48,800 toward our goal of $150,000. We are at 32.53% of this year's goal. We are behind last year's pace by $7,330 and have $101,200 to go to meet our goal. This critical parish financial appeal will run from October through the end of January. This is one of our largest sources of income, aside from our normal Sunday collections, and is greatly needed for the daily operation of our parish. You should have received our appeals materials in the mail. If you have not, there are appeal envelopes located in the entrances of the church. Please return your donation by placing this year's appeal envelope in the collection basket at Mass. You may also mail your contribution or drop it off directly to the rectory. Thank you for your help with this important operating fund appeal!

Our students are amazing!

Our Sciathon Teams did a great job at Villa last week.

The 6th grade team of: Margaret, Catherine, Caitlin, Adelaida and McKenna took 3rd place for the 6th grade teams.

The 7th grade team of: Meredith, Isabelle, Sophia, Ana and Veronica took 1st place. The 8th grade team of: Sophia, Mia, Erin, Maddie and Faith took 3rd place. We were the only school that placed in all of the categories! Thank you girls and Mrs. Fiduccia for doing us proud.

On Saturday the following students, Meredith Czyz, Lily Eliason, Robyn Eliason, Margaret Fronheiser, Catherine Gallagher, Julia Klukowski and Luke Ruppertsberger, will be representing us at the Future City Engineering Fair. The students will be exhibiting the model from last year and answering questions regarding the city's design. They will also be participating in activities to prepare for this year's competition on Clean Water: Tap into Tomorrow. Good luck to these students and their monitor Mrs. Casey.

The following girls took first in overall show in the Newtown Halloween Painting Window Contest: Alexandra Machek, Nanea Perales, Ella Ruppertsberger, Sophia de Jesus and Mia Falkenstein. Mentored by Mrs. Parisian, our Art teacher!

ADULT Faith FORMATION

As we enter the month of November, we celebrate both All Saints and All Souls. When I was a child, there were references to the three aspects or groups of the Catholic Church, the Church Militant – those fighting the battle every day here on earth; the Church Triumphant (all Saints)-those who had entered Heaven; the Church Suffering- those in Purgatory who would eventually go to Heaven once they were purified. The aforementioned celebrations are two of these groups, Triumphant on Nov. 1 and Suffering on Nov. 2. Those of us ‘left behind’ are the Church Militant. Do you feel like you are a ‘militant’? Do you consider yourself being in spiritual warfare? Our next DVD program offered by Chris Stefanick, a young, on-fire Evangelist, who will discuss “Absolute Relativism: The New Dictatorship and What to Do about it” on Saturday, November 23, 2019 at 9 AM in the school cafeteria with coffee and donuts and discussion. Join us and bring a friend.

Join us at our monthly meetings usually the first Wednesday of every month at 7:30 PM in the Antioch Center.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

Respect

“God never stops offering each of us his mercy, ‘a concrete reality with which he reveals his love’ (MV 6).” The quality of mercy is unstrained; God is love; God is mercy. He would like us to be in a close relationship with Him so we may experience His full mercy. James 2:13 tells us “because judgment without mercy will be shown to anyone who has not been merciful. Mercy triumphs over judgment (justice)”.

We are in the month of remembrance of ‘all Saints’ and ‘all Souls’ and both celebrations bring us to a recollection of those who have gone before us; they have all had their particular judgments and have personally experienced God’s loving mercy. As our funeral masses celebrate ‘life is not ended, it is changed’ and while some may feel uncomfortable thinking about death and dying, no one, including Jesus, has escaped physical death of the body. But the fact that we are created to be eternal gives us great hope in looking forward to the Second Coming and the resurrection of OUR bodies where we will be reunited with our bodies to live for all of eternity in Heaven or Hell. Let us respect our bodies in this life; let us not judge others but love our neighbor as ourselves; love our children unconditionally both born and unborn and love God with all our hearts so we can experience His divine mercy.

Our Lady of Guadalupe pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For those who fail to protect the gift of human life: May they abandon their sin, turn to the Lord, and receive His mercy; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Prayer: For the souls of aborted babies, rest in peace.

ROSARY

All are invited to recite the rosary after the 9:00 Mass. For those who can stay longer, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is also recited. The rosary is also recited at the following times: 4:45pm Saturday Nights, 6pm Wednesdays in our Blessed Mother's Meeting Room (#2D Antioch Meeting Center), 10am Tuesdays Rosary for Healing (Chapel), 3pm Fridays Sacred Heart Rosary (Chapel)
