August 16, 2020

Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Isaiah 56: 1, 6-7

Foreigners, or Gentiles, living within Palestine were given limited rights by the Jews. This arose because a certain universalist tendency now held sway among the Jews of this prophet's time.

Reading II: Romans 11: 13-15, 29-32

God's gifts and calling are given both to Jews and Gentiles. Paul definitely believes this. For him, who was always conscious of his Jewish origins, it became a clear belief that Jews and all others will be saved through God's mercy.

The Gospel: Matthew 15: 21-28

The Canaanite woman is doubly marginal: she is a woman in a man's world and a Gentile. She uses Our Lord's "dog" imagery to make a frank but humble reply. He recognizes the universality of His Father's call; admires the woman's faith, and immediately heals her daughter.

God our Father, Thank you for calling Griffen Schlaepfer, Andrew Lane, Michael Lewis, Philip Cheung, Erik Reyes, and Anthony Albanese to prepare for the priesthood. My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

ADULT Faith FORMATION

The work of evangelization always begins at home. We are all called to holiness; we are all called to evangelize. But, how can we evangelize if we don't know our faith? Don't have a close relationship with Jesus? We need to be converted within our hearts first and BE evangelized before we do so with others. We cannot reach out to others who do not practice their faith if we have not heard and accepted the invitation to intimacy with Christ. Those who do not know God cannot bear fruit. We believe our adult faith and formation is an indispensable part of evangelization. Our committee tries to proceed from two viewpoints; one, spiritual development through offering the faithful contact with the rich Tradition of the Catholic Church and spirituality centered in the liturgy and Sacraments. The goal of this development is to cultivate a more authentic and mature relationship with Jesus Christ who is always encountered in and through the Church; two, intellectual/personal development which seeks to enrich a person's knowledge of the Catholic faith so as to enrich and enliven their intimacy with Jesus and allow His love to penetrate all aspects of all our lives. We usually start off with refreshments and community followed by a faithfully Catholic program and ending with faith sharing/questions-answers. The topics are usually related to what is of current or burning interest in our society/culture/family/personal lives.

Over the past 20 plus years of the existence of our committee, we have presented almost 200 programs, some live speakers, some DVD's, some local, some national and usually attended, on average by about 25-30 per program with some over 100 depending on interest. These have served over thousands of parishioners. For the past 12 years we have had a women's scripture study, Walking with Purpose, serve on average 100 women per year for 26 weeks with free baby-sitting- day and evening programs. Not to be outdone, two years ago we started a men's program; our first offering 'That Man is You' had over 40 men attend weekly for 26 weeks; since we have had two others, the Book of St. James and Who am I to Judge serving over 25 men per program for 8-10 weeks each. We are here for you; to serve you so you may serve Him who yearns to be known to all men and women... through you!!!!

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

Respect

"Abortion affects countless marriages more than many people recognize. But there is no doubt that God will bring great healing to those who trust in his infinite mercy. If a past abortion can be acknowledged and addressed, a married couple can make great strides in experiencing even more fully God's design that 'the two shall become one' (Mt 19:5)." And, since the two shall become one in matrimony, the two suffer the loss of the one – because both lose and both suffer. True sacrificial love, as exhibited by Jesus on the Cross, is emptying oneself and focused on 'the other', not the 'self'. There are close to a million abortions performed surgically in the US every year since 1973; this number does NOT include medical abortions as a result of hormonal contraceptives/ IUD's/ the morning after pill/ and medically induced abortions as they are 'not reportable' and many are not aware of the abortifacient effects of these products, yet they somehow experience a 'woundedness' that is inexplicable throughout their lives; a sense of 'something missing', something lost! Yes, their child! But God's mercy is there; His love is there for all who seek it and repent their interference in God's plan for life and love and all salvation and eternity, and, yes, those children do exist for all eternity.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For those suffering after abortion: May they know that the Lord desires to bring healing, to replace their pain with His mercy and peace; we pray to the Lord.

Rose of Life Intention: For all who have aborted a child, that they seek and receive God's mercy.

The Columbarium

at St. Ignatius of Antioch Cemetery

For many centuries cemeteries were commonly found in churchyards, allowing churches to minister to the spiritual needs of their members, from baptism through life to death. Since our cemetery is nearly at capacity today, we cannot offer additional burial plots at our parish cemetery. But there is a modern alternative which more and more churches are offering their members: the Columbarium.

A Columbarium is a collection of niches designed to house urns containing cremated human remains (cremains). Inscribed with the persons' names and dates of birth and death. St. Ignatius' Columbarium is located in our parish cemetery on the picturesque Delaware River. The Columbarium is self-funded, using income derived from the sale of niches for construction and operation.

Benefits of a Columbarium

- Spiritual Site for Final Resting - The principal benefit a Columbarium affords church members and their families the opportunity to select their final resting place in the parish cemetery of the church which has been central to their lives, a sacred site of beauty and dignity where their loved ones can visit and meditate whenever they visit the cemetery.
- Simplicity of Planning - The purchase of a Columbarium niche eliminates the pressures of choosing a burial site, casket, vault and monument; also, there is no need to plan for inurnment and memorial services at different locations and times.
- Substantial Financial Savings - With the Columbarium, significant costs are limited to cremation, the niche, the plaque and the obituary.
