Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading I: Jeremiah 20: 7-9

Here is a "confession" of the St. Augustine sort, in which the prophet reveals the pains and bothersome elements of his calling. He says he feels "duped" or "tricked" by God. In fulfilling his mission, he faced many persecutors, and yet the urge to preach was irresistible, so he has carried on.

Reading II: Romans 12: 1-2

Christian life is supposed to be a sacrifice offered to God. Also, we are not to conform to the passing world, but to the things of the life to come that will last. We are therefore to be inwardly transformed.

The Gospel: Matthew 16: 21-27

Peter, only having recently proclaimed Jesus as the Messiah, now becomes an unwitting obstacle to the Lord's mission. How? By remonstrating Jesus when He says His mission involves the cross. Jesus goes on to describe Peter's discipleship, and ours, as a matter of taking up our own cross, whatever that might be.

JOURNEY OF Faith PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

God our Father, Thank you for calling Griffen Schlaepfer, Andrew Lane, Michael Lewis, Philip Cheung, Erik Reyes, and Anthony Albanese to prepare for the priesthood. Grant them the grace to grow closer to You through daily prayer. Help them form their personalities as credible witnesses to others. Bless them while they study Your word and the teachings of the Church, and give them generous hearts to serve Your people. We ask this through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our great High Priest. Amen To learn more about our seminarians visit <http://heedthecall.org/poster/>

VOCATION OFFICE FOR THE DIOCESAN PRIESTHOOD
ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA
HEED THE CALL

Pray for our beloved deceased especially those who have no one to pray for them, and the Holy Souls in purgatory.

Exposition will be held Monday thru Friday from 10 am to 8 pm. The restrictions for church attendance such as social distancing and wearing of masks apply. To assist with church sanitizing we are designating the front 3 pews for this devotion. We hope to resume 24/7 Perpetual Adoration in the Chapel when it is advisable. In the meantime, let us pray for each other and may God continue to bless you and your families.

2021 MASS BOOK

The 2021 Mass Book will open on Wednesday, September 9th. If you would like to reserve Masses, please come to the rectory, wearing a mask, between the hours of 10am and 3pm. In order to accommodate the requests of as many parishioners as possible, we will limit the number of Masses to 5 per person for the first week that the book is open.

Prayer Before an Election
(from www.usccb.org)

Lord God, as the election approaches, we seek to better understand the issues and concerns that confront our city/state/country, and how the Gospel compels us to respond as faithful citizens in our community. We ask for eyes that are free from blindness so that we might see each other as brothers and sisters, one and equal in dignity, especially those who are victims of abuse and violence, deceit and poverty. We ask for ears that will hear the cries of children unborn and those abandoned, Men and women oppressed because of race or creed, religion or gender. We ask for minds and hearts that are open to hearing the voice of leaders who will bring us closer to your Kingdom. We pray for discernment so that we may choose leaders who hear your Word, live your love, and keep in the ways of your truth as they follow in the steps of Jesus and his Apostles and guide us to your Kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this in the name of your Son Jesus Christ and through the power of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

We continue to support Mary's Food Cupboard at Catholic Social Services with your help. Please consider donating to our collection on the second Sunday of each month. Our next collection will be Sept 12th/13th. There will be burlap bins at each church entrance labeled "Food Collection" to accept your donation of non-perishable food items, paper goods and baby needs. Thank you!

FATHER McCAFFERTY SCHOLARSHIP FUND

A suggestion to our parishioners - see if the company you work for might consider a matching gift to your donation to our Scholarship Fund. We are in need of several donations to the fund in order to assist needy families with school tuition.

ROSARY

All are invited to recite the rosary after the 9:00 Mass. For those who can stay longer, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy is also recited.

GROTTO BRICKS

We are currently taking orders for personally inscribed bricks that will be installed on the walkway to the parish grotto. The donation is $100 per brick with personal messages allowed up to 15 letters on each of the 3 lines. Orders will be taken until 9/15/2020 for late fall installation. Order forms are available at the rectory or online through our website www.stignatius.church. Please include the $100 donation with your order form. For further assistance, please email Jackie: jmad-den@sischool.org. Thank you!

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

ADULT Faith FORMATION

Here are a few questions we attempt to answer through our programs offered by the Adult Faith Formation and Education Committee:

Do you know how to pray? Do you know to/for whom to pray?

Do you understand the mass? Do you know what the Catholic church teaches about end of life issues? About beginning of life issues? Do you know the benefits of sacraments and grace? Can you explain moral relativism? Have you read any books in the Bible? Do you understand the timeline of the Bible? What you know about vices and virtue? What is the meaning of life? Do you like movies? How would you explain the Eucharist? Mary? The saints? Exorcism? Evil? Natural law? Is there a Hell/Purgatory? Is there a devil? What do you know about angels? How do you handle faith with your children? How do you handle social media with your children/family? What do you know about Mary? Her Immaculate Conception? Her Assumption? Are you prepared for spiritual warfare? Do you know what weapons are available for you to fight spiritual warfare? What is heaven? How did we get to where we are in our culture? Who were the Church fathers? What is an encyclical? These and many others have been addressed, some several times by different authors and venues. Again, we invite you to pray for an end to the pandemic and consider joining us virtually for one or more of our programs. St. Thomas Aquinas pray for us.

Respect

"No sin or crime is greater than God's mercy. The sacrifice of the Cross reveals that Christ's greatest desire is to forgive those with a repentant heart." Jesus has given us so much!

He has given us the Church; He has given us His Word; He has given us the Sacraments; He has given us the Mass; He has given us all a priesthood; He has given us access to Him, His Mother and the Saints and His unwavering Love and Mercy. So, yes, we all sin; some sin is considered 'mortal' meaning we walked away from God because of the severity of the sin; some sin is 'venial' meaning not mortal but 'separational' from being close to God. It is not about rules; one who loves the other does what is good and right for the other without rules because they don't wish to hurt the loved one; if we are in true relationship with God we will not want to hurt Him and will spontaneously and happily do what is good and right; He even gave us His Natural Law- written upon our hearts at our creation with His Word and 'conscience' (that inner voice that speaks to us- Holy Spirit). Confessions are available now, even in this time of pandemic; let us being willing to safely open ourselves up to His mercy, His love, His forgiveness... you will be glad you did... and so will HE!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For those who are imprisoned, especially those condemned to death:

May they be treated with the respect due to every human person; we pray to the Lord.

Rose of Life Intention: For all who are imprisoned by sin.
