Feast of Our Lord Jesus Christ the King

Reading I: Ezekiel 34: 11-12, 15-17

God calls Himself "the Good Shepherd," who undoes the wrongs of all the bad shepherds. He will defend the weak. Finally, He will separate the good from the bad at the last judgment.

Reading II: I Corinthians 15: 20-26, 28

Paul surpasses human logic and reaches a point where his passion for Christ gives him his conviction about the resurrection. He draws a parallel between Adam and Christ and then turns to thoughts about the end time.

The Gospel: Matthew 25: 31-46

Perhaps depending on the Ezekiel passage read this weekend, this is a much-loved part of Matthew's gospel. Discipleship is made identical with care for the needy. Ours then is a practical religion of good deeds for our neighbor, which in turn becomes the basis for God's judgment.

RECTORY HOURS

The rectory office is open Monday through Friday from 9AM until 4PM. All other times will be by appointment only. FISCAL CORNER

As of week 7 of the Parish appeal, 226 families have contributed $78,215.71 toward our goal of $150,000. We are at 52.14% of this year's goal and are $7,959 behind last year's pace. We ask that you please consider a gift towards this most important appeal!

This is one of our largest sources of income, aside from our normal Sunday collections, and is greatly needed for the daily operation of our parish. We are seeing a small decrease in our total Sunday collections as well as facing a shortfall in the school due to Covid remediation. Additional cost for cleaning and sanitizing, additional staff for remediation, supplies and signage, as well as the reduction in enrollment in our PreK program will result in a larger than average parish subsidy. If you can help with this effort, it would be greatly appreciated! You should have received our appeal materials in the mail. If you have not, there are appeal envelopes located in the entrances of the church. Please return your donation by placing this year's appeal envelope in the collection basket at Mass, mail your contribution or drop it off directly to the rectory. You can even make a one time donation on our Parish Giving site. Please visit www.stignatius.church for more information on e-giving. Thank you for your generosity!

Eucharistic Adoration

Exposition will be held Monday thru Friday from 10AM to 8PM. The restrictions for church attendance such as social distancing and wearing of masks apply. To assist with church sanitizing we are designating the front 3 pews for this devotion. We hope to resume 24/7 Perpetual Adoration in the Chapel when it is advisable. In the meantime, let us pray for each other and may God continue to bless you and your families.

Due to the projected spike in new Covid cases, we are now requiring masks be worn while in the Church. The ushers will be instructed to make sure everyone is wearing a mask while attending Mass. Please help to keep everyone safe and help to avoid another shutdown. If you do not want to wear a mask for yourself, please wear one to help protect your parish family members!

PRAY FOR OUR SEMINARIANS

God our Father, Thank you for calling Griffen Schlaepfer, Andrew Lane, Michael Lewis, Philip Cheung, Erik Reyes, Anthony Albanese, and Juan Builes, to prepare for the priesthood. Grant them the grace to grow closer to You through daily prayer. Help them form their personalities as credible witnesses to others. Bless them while they study Your word and the teachings of the Church, and give them generous hearts to serve Your people. We ask this through Your Son, Jesus Christ, our great High Priest. Amen

CHILDREN'S Liturgy of the Word

The Children's Liturgy of the Word has resumed with safety measures in place. All participants will be asked to wear masks/face shields. The children will be spaced six feet apart while we process downstairs at the start of Children's Liturgy and again while we process upstairs afterwards. In addition, we will set up the worship space on the floor of the auditorium to provide additional room to spread the children. The children will sit on individual mats that will be disinfected each week. Siblings will be permitted to sit next to one another, if they choose, but all other participants will be spaced six feet apart. For the time being, leaflets will not be distributed. If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact Mary Alice LaMorte at malamorte@verizon.net at any time. We look forward to an interactive Children's Liturgy with your children once again!

Religious Education

PREP REGISTRATION: PREP (Parish Religious Education Program) is for children in Grades K to 8. PREP classes are being held remotely at the present time. Parents can find the lessons on the parish website. (Go to stignatius.church, and then click on PREP. The grade levels will come up, so click on the level you want. Finish up by completing the Interactive Session Review and send results to Mrs. Perini's email – lperini@stignatius.church). Each class's lesson will be available for 3 weeks only. Then the next lesson will replace it. Registered families can communicate with the teachers by email. If you missed registration, please stop in our office or call us (215-493-5204) to receive the registration form by email.

Special Needs: Parents, are you aware that we have a PREP class for students with special needs? If we could help to give your child a religious education in a small group environment, please call Annmarie at 215-493-5204.

8th Grade Students: Our program this year is Matthew Kelly's Decision Point. Parents, please encourage your 8th graders to continue their study of God and his Church. Confirmation is not graduation from learning about God; this is a lifetime commitment.

SACRAMENTS:

FIRST RECONCILIATION AND FIRST COMMUNION: If you missed the informational Parent Meeting for First Penance/Holy Communion, we will have a Zoom meeting soon. First Penance will take place on Tuesday, March 2, 2021, at 7:00 p.m. First Communion is scheduled for Saturday, April 17, 2021, at 9:30 a.m. Mass and 12:00 noon Mass.

CONFIRMATION:

There will be a Parent Meeting for Confirmation on Thursday, December 10, at 7:00 p.m. in Church. We are using the church so you can spread out and maintain social distance. Please wear a mask. Confirmation is scheduled for Saturday, April 24, 2021, at 10:00 a.m., with Bishop John J. McIntyre.

Don't forget our annual Advent Gift-Giving Mass scheduled for Thursday, December 3, at 7:00 p.m., in Church. Please bring an unwrapped gift for a child of any age. If you are unable to attend the Mass, you can bring your gift to the altar server sacristy anytime during the day on Dec. 3.

Our Annual Advent Gift-Giving Mass

Our annual Advent Gift-Giving Mass will take place on Thursday, December 3, at 7:00 p.m. This annual tradition helps to support the families of St. Katharine Drexel Parish in Chester and Sacred Heart Parish in Camden, NJ. All are welcome and encouraged to come to Mass. Please wear a mask and spread out through the Church. Bring an unwrapped gift for a child of any age. The gifts are usually toys, but people sometimes bring jackets or other items. If you are unable to come to the Mass, you can still give to the children in these parishes by bringing your gift(s) to the sacristy (where the altar servers dress) during that day. In this time of Covid, these gifts are more needed than usual. Please help us to help these kids.

CARING FOR FRIENDS (Formerly Aid for Friends)

Due to health concerns during the holiday season, Caring for Friends will be CANCELLED on December 10, 2020. We will resume meeting to assemble meals for the homebound on January 14, 2021.

Please remember that the Thanksgiving collection at St. Ignatius has been designated for Caring for Friends. This collection provides a substantial amount of our available funds for the year. We are able to purchase food and supplies for the meals we assemble at St. Ignatius with these funds so please be as generous as possible. Thank you to our loyal supporters. A special Thank You to Father Brownholtz for his generosity!

If you would like to make meals at home, please use the packets available at each church door for this purpose. These packets have enough supplies for five meals. If you would like to obtain a larger supply of materials, please contact Kathy (215-321-0116) or Jayne (215-321-5739) to obtain these supplies.

Thank you so much for your understanding during these crazy times! We hope that in the new year we will be able to resume a more consistent schedule. We have made these adjustments to our schedule in the hopes that we are protecting our wonderful volunteers. Please have a joyful and safe holiday season. Kathy and Jayne

ADULT Faith FORMATION

As mentioned last week, one of the celebrations of the Advent season are the O antiphons. They have been sung since the 8th century and usually accompany the Magnificat canticle of evening prayer from Dec. 17-23.

They use biblical imagery drawn from the Messianic hopes of the Old Testament to proclaim the coming of Christ as the fulfillment not only of Old Testament hopes but present ones as well. They are O Wisdom of our God Most High, O Leader of the House of Israel, O Root of Jesse, O Key of David, O Radiant Dawn, O King of All Nations and Keystone of the Church, and O Emmanuel our King and Giver of Law. They are short and can be prayed or sung. Each one highlights a title for the Messiah and also refers to the prophecy of Isaiah of the coming of the Messiah. Often, they are listed in Latin. If one begins with the last one and takes the first letter of each one- Emmanuel, Rex, Oriens, Clavis, Radix, Adonai, Sapientia- the Latin word 'eros cras' are formed meaning Tomorrow, I will come! As we conclude the singing, He WILL COME TOMORROW! And, we really need His being with us now more than ever. St. Thomas Aquinas pray for us.

Respect

Life “He must reign in our hearts, which should spurn natural desires and love God above all things, and cleave to him alone” (Quas primas, 33). Happy Feast of Christ the King. Is Christ King in our lives? Is He our ruler and lover? We all try to cling (in this quote is the Biblical meaning of cleave- to adhere firmly and closely) to things that give us comfort and rest. As children, we may have stuffed animals or a blanket or a pacifier; as we get older, it may be a pet or a bike or a doll or a character or some possession we identify with; as adults we may cling to old behaviors, habits, not so savory friends, money, possessions, or some other ‘acceptable’ talisman. None of these things give us peace or rest. St. Augustine tells us that ‘our hearts are restless and they cannot rest until they rest in God’. In order for there to be room in our hearts for God to reign, we have to clean house and empty out all love of materialism and make room for the King of Kings.

Many of us have many things for which to be thankful; many of us have blessings, gifts, family, health, friends, marriages, children, relationships; many do not. But, how often to we think of our very lives as being gift; how many thank God for the grace He gives us regardless of what is going on in our lives? This thanksgiving, during this time of pandemic, we need to reflect on respect and life.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: On this feast of Christ the King and always, may all recognize God as the author of life and give thanks for His priceless gift; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For all who are lonely and abandoned.

DECORATE THE CHURCH

Please join us in decorating our church for Christmas on Sunday, December 20th at 12:45PM. This is a great opportunity for service hours! If you can help, please call the rectory, 215-493-3377 extension 211, and leave your name and phone number. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.

BOY SCOUT WREATHS

Once again Boy Scout Troop 230 will be selling beautiful Christmas wreaths after all the masses the week-ends of November 28 and 29 and December 5 and 6. These classic wreaths are from our new partner-Mickman Brothers in Minnesota, a family-owned business. The cost of each beautiful wreath is $25 and includes a red bow and white pinecones.

This year we have also added another option---you may order wreaths, swags and tabletop trees online for yourself or as a gift. FedEx will deliver to you or your gift recipient the first week in December. Wreaths come with a hanger and you can include a gift message. If you wish to order a wreath or other item online go to www.GiftItForward.com and type in our Fundraising Code: TR230NJ001 and the name of your referring member is: BSA Troop 230. Easy shipping to multiple gift recipients. Something for everyone on your Christmas List!

Troop 230 appreciates your support of our one fundraiser! Thank you! If you have any questions you can email Colleen White at: colleenandgreg@comcast.net.
