The Second Sunday of Lent

Reading I: Genesis 22: 1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

Yahweh gives Abraham the ultimate test, that of sacrificing his favorite son Isaac. Observing Abraham's unquestioning obedience, Yahweh calls off the killing, accepting the sacrifice of a nearby ram. He also promises Abraham abundant rewards, including the growth of a great people as his descendants.

Reading II: Romans 8: 31b-34

St. Paul provides his readers a solid basis for their hope, specifying along the way the unique power of Jesus' intercession for us with His Father. He also asks "If God is for us, who can be against us?"

The Gospel: Mark 9: 2-10

The transfiguration of Jesus was such a dazzling experience for Peter that he nervously proposes setting up three tents so that the three persons from the world beyond could stay and prolong it. But immediately after, Jesus brings the three apostles down to earth to complete their earthly mission.

RECTORY HOURS

The rectory office is open Monday through Friday from 9AM until 4PM. All other times will be by appointment only. For your protection, and the protection of the staff, we ask that all persons over the age of 2 wear a mask while in the rectory. Please do not hesitate to contact us at 215-493-3377 or contact@stignatius.church before you stop by as most things can still be accomplished with a phone call.

The Second Sunday of Lent
February 28, 2021

First Reading

Gn 22:1-2, 9a, 10-13, 15-18

God put Abraham to the test. He called to him, “Abraham!” “Here I am!” he replied. Then God said: “Take your son Isaac, your only one, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah. There you shall offer him up as a holocaust on a height that I will point out to you.” When they came to the place of which God had told him, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. Then he reached out and took the knife to slaughter his son. But the LORD’s messenger called to him from heaven, “Abraham, Abraham!” “Here I am!” he answered. “Do not lay your hand on the boy,” said the messenger. “Do not do the least thing to him. I know now how devoted you are to God, since you did not withhold from me your own beloved son.” As Abraham looked about, he spied a ram caught by its horns in the thicket. So he went and took the ram and offered it up as a holocaust in place of his son. Again the LORD’s messenger called to Abraham from heaven and said: “I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you acted as you did in not withholding from me your beloved son, I will bless you abundantly and make your descendants as countless as the stars of the sky and the sands of the seashore; your descendants shall take possession of the gates of their enemies, and in your descendants all the nations of the earth shall find blessing— all this because you obeyed my command.”

Responsorial Psalm

PS 116:10, 15, 16-17, 18-19

R. (116:9) I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

I believed, even when I said, “I am greatly afflicted.” Precious in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his faithful ones.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

O LORD, I am your servant; I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; you have loosed my bonds.

To you will I offer sacrifice of thanksgiving, and I will call upon the name of the LORD.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

My vows to the LORD I will pay in the presence of all his people, In the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem.

R. I will walk before the Lord, in the land of the living.

Second Reading

Rom 8:31b-34

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who can be against us?

He who did not spare his own Son

but handed him over for us all,

how will he not also give us everything else along with him?

Who will bring a charge against God’s chosen ones?

It is God who acquits us, who will condemn?

Christ Jesus it is who died—or, rather, was raised—who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us.

Verse Before the Gospel

Cf. Mt 17:5

From the shining cloud the Father’s voice is heard:

This is my beloved Son, listen to him.

Gospel

Mk 9:2-10

Jesus took Peter, James, and John

and led them up a high mountain apart by themselves.

And he was transfigured before them,

and his clothes became dazzling white,

such as no fuller on earth could bleach them.

Then Elijah appeared to them along with Moses,

and they were conversing with Jesus.

Then Peter said to Jesus in reply,

“Rabbi, it is good that we are here!

Let us make three tents:

one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

He hardly knew what to say, they were so terrified.

Then a cloud came, casting a shadow over them;

from the cloud came a voice,

“This is my beloved Son. Listen to him.”

Suddenly, looking around, they no longer saw anyone but Jesus alone with them.

As they were coming down from the mountain,

he charged them not to relate what they had seen to anyone, except when the Son of Man had risen from the dead.

So they kept the matter to themselves,

questioning what rising from the dead meant.

ADULT Faith FORMATION

Last weekend, our entry was an introduction to Fr. Henri Nouwen's book, "With Burning Hearts". This week is an offering of further reflection on his exegesis on the Gospel of the road to Emmaus. "The opposite of resentment is gratitude. Gratitude is more than an occasional 'thanks be to God'. Gratitude is an attitude that enables us to let go of anger, receive the hidden gifts of those we want to serve, and make these gifts visible to the community as a source of celebration. Gratitude is at the heart of celebration and ministry. When I think of what it means to live and act in the name of Jesus, I realize that what I have to offer to others I is not my intelligence, skill, power, influence, or connections, but my own human brokenness, through which the love of God can manifest itself. Ministry is entering with our human brokenness into communion with others and speaking a word of hope. The great paradox of ministry is that when we minister in our weakness, we receive from those to whom we go. The more we are with our own need for healing and salvation, the more open we are to receiving in gratitude what others have to offer us." Eucharist means 'thanksgiving'. Do we receive with a joy of thanksgiving? Have we 'let go' of all of our resentments before receiving? The disciples on the road to Emmaus 'recognized Him in the breaking of the bread'; Nouwen suggests we can see Christ in others in their brokenness and allow the Christ within us to be shared with the other. Let's make this Lent what is really about.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

Respect

"The essence of our identity is that we are created in God's image and likeness and loved by Him. Nothing can diminish the priceless worth of any human life. Every person is cherished."

(USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities 2018-19 Respect Life Reflection)
Psalm 8 tells us 'what is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them? You have made them a little lower than the angels and crowned them with glory and honor. You made them rulers over the works of your hands; you put everything under their feet: all flocks and herds and the animals of the wild, the birds in the sky, and the fish in the sea, all that swim the paths of the seas'. Further, Genesis tells us that after Adam and Eve awoke after creation of Eve that the very first commandment God gave to our first parents was 'be fruitful and multiply and fill the earth and subdue it; and rule over the fish of the sea and over the birds in the sky and over every other living beings that moves on earth'. So, God gave us physical bodies and a commandment to be fruitful and 'co-create' new life through the marital covenant and not even angels have physical bodies that can 'co-create' new life! We are called to CHERISH every person (cherish: protect and care lovingly; hold something (someone) dear). Is that what we do when we are aborting over 3,000 babies per day in the U.S.?

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us

Intercessory Prayer: During this Lenten season, may all who have participated in abortion receive the courage to return to the Lord, who is gracious and merciful; We pray to the Lord

Rose of Life Intention: For all aborted babies, that thy may rest in God's peace and grace.

SOCIAL ACTION COLLECTION

Next weekend the Social Action Committee will have its second collection of the year, asking you again for your financial support. Last year was without doubt a stressful time for many, and it isn't over yet. The Social Action Committee has been a source of support for many including Catholic Social Services who we help with their emergency needs, from purchasing diapers and baby's needs for new mothers to helping with energy costs. Our monthly food collection helps them as well and the response to this is heartwarming. Over 3000 lbs of food were donated last year. We continue to provide monthly meals to the Advocates for the Homeless Program, so far providing over 1300 meals. The February meal is the 25th meal we have prepared since our involvement. Parish families are always a priority and we have helped with clothing and food needs as well as utility and travel expenses. This is possible because of your generosity.

Donations can be made through the online program. Please be sure that Social Action Committee is designated. For those parishioners still using envelopes, there is a yellow one in the packet. Thank you for your continued support.

God Bless You.

The Knights of Columbus Monthly Notes:
LISTEN CAREFULLY.

The invitation as seen in the Bulletin of January 31, 2021 was an open invitation to all the men in our parish who might need a little encouragement to look into joining the Knights to expand our outreach and promote our goals of charity, fraternity, unity, and patriotism. With all the snow and snow removal issues we have faced in February, we may have missed reaching some of our men. Please know that this is an open invitation and please realize that we will always welcome your inquiries.

We heartily join in the prayer intentions as shared by Helene LaRosa with members of the Knights. Helene discretely shares some of the heartfelt stories of people most in need of our prayers. Joining her prayer group in this ministry, we immediately show our concern for others and an appreciation of our own blessings and need to thank God daily.

Now that Lent has opened our hearts to sincere reflections and discernment of how we can prepare for the risen Lord's graces, we remind all that the Knights concur with the Church's call for positive actions that become our Lenten promises. Personally, giving up candy has been my one hold-on act from childhood, but justifiably so, because it is still a major act of self denial. Along with self denial, we must seek more good deeds.

Thinking of ways to expand the possibility of fresh, new ideas that complement our goals, the Memorial Day Parade in Yardley comes to mind. Visibly joining the parade to honor the men and women, who have given their lives to protect America in war, satisfies our goal of patriotism. Try to imagine the effect on our community if St. Ignatius Parish appears in the parade and demonstrates our continuing Christian spirit and our profound impact on our community over the last 100 years. Participation of some parish groups like the K of C, the Social Action Committee, the Aid for Friends workers, our School Community, the Perpetual Adoration Team, and many more ministries, would be a powerful, positive, evangelization effort in Yardley and Lower Makefield Township..(As of now the American Legion parade committee has applied for permission to hold the parade and feels very confident that the parade will take place this May, despite the pandemic. The Legion welcomes the participation of the K of C and more of our parish groups.) If you wish to expand on parish participation ideas, please share them.

Imagine also some of the new, creative ideas that new members could bring to our efforts to follow in the footsteps of our founder, Blessed Father Michael McGivney. May God continue to guide us through his intercession and may his canonization soon be realized. Listen to his call for your help; it is real, and he is very powerful.

Tom Humphrey
K of C member.
