Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

August 7, 2022

*"Blessed are those servants
whom the master finds vigilant on his arrival."*

LUKE 12:37

Reading I: Wisdom 18: 6-9

"That night" is mentioned, which is the noteworthy night of the Passover, the beginning of the liberation of God's chosen people from Egyptian slavery.

Reading II: Hebrews 11: 1-2, 8-19 or 11: 1-2, 8-12

We all walk in a certain darkness toward our true homeland, but the road is illuminated by faith. That is the faith that Abraham lived his days.

The Gospel: Luke 12: 32-48, or 12: 35-40

St. Luke puts the so-called "servant parables" in the context of the Church. A good servant gives service to the Christian community. A foolish one may do the opposite but is the inevitable loser.

SANCTUARY CANDLE

The church sanctuary candle burns for all living and deceased parishioners.

Blessed Michael McGivney

Feast Day: August 13

The eldest son of an immigrant Irish family in Connecticut, young Michael left school at 13 to work in a brass factory making spoons. At 16 he began studies for the priesthood in Quebec, but was obliged to leave to help support the family when his father died. Michael completed his education in Baltimore, Maryland, and was ordained for the diocese of Hartford in 1877.

Assigned to St. Mary's Parish in New Haven, Fr. McGivney was very active in parish and civic affairs, serving as director of public plays and fairs. He volunteered to become the guardian of Alfred Downes, a minor whose father had died leaving a large family in poverty. This situation as well as his own family's circumstances and that of other immigrants impressed on Fr. McGivney the need for lay Catholic men to establish a mutual aid society to provide financial assistance for their families if the primary wage earner died. Protestant fraternal groups already provided this type of life insurance protection for their members.

In 1882, Fr. McGivney formed the Knights of Columbus among a small group of St. Mary's parishioners to promote charity, unity, and fraternity, assisting widows and orphans. Because of the Knights' emphasis on serving Church, community and family, the organization grew and did not remain strictly parish-based. Patriotism was added as a founding principle in 1900.

Father McGivney died from pneumonia in 1890 and was buried in Thomaston, Connecticut. Later his body was moved back to St. Mary's in New Haven where it remains today. He was beatified in 2020.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

“We thank you, heroic mothers, for your invincible love! We thank you for your intrepid trust in God and in his love. We thank you for the sacrifice of your life” (EV 86). Evangelium Vitae (EV) is an encyclical authored by Pope St. JP II in 1995 on the feast of the incarnation of Mary, Mother of God. It is translated as “The Gospel of Life” and deals with issues pertaining to the sanctity of human life, including murder, abortion, euthanasia and capital punishment, reaffirming the Church’s stances on said issues in a way generally considered consistent with previous Church teachings. A portion of it states that ‘man is called to a fullness of life which far exceeds dimensions of his earthly existence, because it consists in sharing the very life of God’! The encyclical also addresses social and ecological factors, stressing the importance of a society which is built around the family rather than a wish to improve efficiency, and emphasizing the duty to care for the poor and the sick. Let us pray to Mary in this month honoring her Assumption into heaven for life, the dignity of the person, both born and unborn, and our families as they are being attacked every day. Let us dedicate this month to Mary and pray at least once to her every day for her intercession on attacks on life in our country and the world.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: May the Lord generously provide for the needs of all mothers as they dedicate themselves to caring for their children; We pray to the Lord.

Rose of Life Intention: For all mothers and their sacrifices for children and families.

Faith Formation
LIFELONG AND ONGOING

Next month we will resume our in- person, live presentations of our programs for the upcoming Fall/Winter series. It has been a long time coming. Our men's program will begin on 9/14/ 2022 and will be in the Antioch center, second floor with a DVD presentation followed by small breakout groups for discussion. Our topic will be The Gospel of Matthew and the program will run for 24 weeks, every Wednesday evening from 7-8:30 PM. Walking with Purpose will also be revived beginning on Tuesday Sept. 13 meeting in the church auditorium as usual from 9:30 to 11:15 AM, while the evening program will move to the Antioch center and be on Tuesday evenings from 6:45 to 8:30 PM. These sessions usually run for 25 weeks well into the Spring. This will be the 14th year for WWP (not counting the 'pandemic year') and usually 75-100 or so women attend. Plan on joining us as we attempt to revive our programs and enrich our faith lives with study, faith sharing and community. As Pope St. JP II had stated in the beginning of his papacy, 'be not afraid' and that refrain is echoed in one of the more favorite hymns of many, 'be not afraid, I go before you always, come follow me, and I will give you rest'. One other September program will be "Truth and Tolerance" a great DVD presentation by Dr. Peter Kreeft on Saturday, September 24th at 9:30 AM in the Antioch center with coffee and tea. Our trifold are at all the entrances of the Church with all of our year's programs. So, come follow He who is calling you.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

walking with purpose

WALKING WITH PURPOSE REGISTRATION NOW OPEN!

Walking With Purpose is a national women's Catholic Bible study program. Participants at the St. Ignatius chapter are women of all ages and faith backgrounds seeking to grow in faith. Our first session is on Tuesday, September 13, 2022.

The course this year includes two bible studies:

Ordering Your Priorities lays a foundation that helps women focus on the things that matter most. Diving into the pages of Scripture, we'll connect our modern-day challenges with the changeless truths of our faith.

Reclaiming Friendship explores God's plan for friendship, and what it means to be created in His image. This study helps us to understand what it is to have lasting and abiding friendships.

WWP meets at St. Ignatius on:
Tuesday mornings from 9:30-11:15am in the church auditorium or Tuesday evenings from 6:45-8:30pm in the Antioch Center.

No Bible study experience is needed.

If you can't attend every week, come when you can. If you can't prepare for each week's study, come anyway and join the discussion.
