SANCTUARY CANDLE

The church sanctuary candle burns for
The Scherer Family requested by Barb and Jurgen Scherer.

Reading I: Exodus 17: 8-13

Moses defeats the fierce Amalekites by stretching out over them the same rod with which he had defeated Pharaoh. But Yahweh uses this tool to help only when Moses holds the rod aloft.

Reading II: II Timothy 3: 14-4:2

Through Timothy's effort St. Paul urges the community to retain what they have learned from him. He notes that all Scripture, referring to the Old Testament of course, is inspired and useful for teaching. The same holds for the New Testament, yet to be written down in Paul's time.

The Gospel: Luke 18: 1-8

Jesus teaches His disciples and us, the power of prayer. He does it with a story about a persistent widow and her power over a corrupt judge. Important to remember that in those days a widow was nearly powerless in a male-dominated society. Our Lord wants us to pay attention to that fictional judge's remarks.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Children's Liturgy of the Word ministry is looking for volunteers to help at 9:30 Mass. The commitment is 1 or 2 Sundays per quarter, and the schedule is very flexible. We use SignUpGenius®, so you can choose the Sundays that fit your family's schedule. If a conflict should arise on one of your scheduled Sundays, it is easy to switch with another volunteer.

Please consider giving this a try. You are welcome to join us downstairs any Sunday to become more familiar with the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Training of new volunteers will begin in early fall. Email Mary Alice LaMorte at malamorte@verizon.net or call 267-566-4128 to discuss further.

Faith Formation
LIFELONG AND ONGOING

In response to God's call to holiness, our faith and life as adult disciples are grounded in developing a personal relationship with Jesus, "the Holy One of God" (Jn 6:69, Mk 1:24). Accordingly, "'at the heart of catechesis we find, in essence, a Person, the Person of Jesus of Nazareth. . . .' Catechesis aims at putting 'people . . . in communion . . . with Jesus Christ.'"

As its first goal, faith formation helps adults "to acquire an attitude of conversion to the Lord." This attitude fosters a baptismal spirituality for adults. It leads them to recognize and repent of sin in their hearts and lives, to seek reconciliation through the sacraments, and to embrace the invitation and challenge of an ever-deepening faith in Jesus. It means putting on the mind of Christ, trusting in the Father's love, obeying God's will, seeking holiness of life, and growing in love for others. Deepening personal prayer is a significant means toward growth in holiness in daily life. As adult believers, we learn and live our faith as active members of the Church. Our response to God's call to community "cannot remain abstract and unincarnated," but rather, "reveals itself concretely by a visible entry into a community of believers . . . a community which itself is a sign of transformation, a sign of newness of life: it is the Church, the visible sacrament of salvation." People find this community of faith in the parish and diocese, as well as in their families, small church communities, personal relationships, faith-based associations, and in the communion of saints of all times and places.

Accordingly, faith formation helps adults make "a conscious and firm decision to live the gift and choice of faith through membership in the Christian community," accepting "co-responsibility for the community's mission and internal life." Adults not only receive the ministries of the Christian community, they also contribute to its life and mission through the generous stewardship of their gifts. Why not join us? We are community here at St. Ignatius and perhaps God is calling you to ministry. If interested contact Tom Parsons or Les Ruppersberger or come to one of our meetings.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

"Mary, Mother of the Church, graciously help us build a culture of life and a civilization of love, together with all people of good will, to the praise and glory of God, the Creator and lover of life. Amen." USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities "A Prayer for Pregnant Mothers"

Other resources for support of women in need who find themselves with child, like Mary, that are unplanned are residential homes for pregnant women. There are three in our area. Cradle of Hope in Glenside which is opening a second residence which is now under renovation and is in need of financial help and resources and supplies. Guiding Star as a residence monitored by the Pro-life Union and managed by Catholic Social Services personnel. Mother Castello home in Bensalem. All of these homes are worthy of support and prayers as they house these moms in a home-like atmosphere with full support throughout the 9 months of pregnancy and for 9 months after their children are born. We have been truly blessed with many such homes and staff in our area.

Legacy of Life Foundation offers free one-hour tours at their facility on the first Tuesday and third Thursday of each month or by appointment. If you ever have an hour free and would like to see what we do, how we do it and where we do it call 215-826-9269 or go to legacyoflifefoundation.org.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: That the life of every person, from conception to natural death, will be protected in our laws and cherished in our hearts; We pray to the Lord:

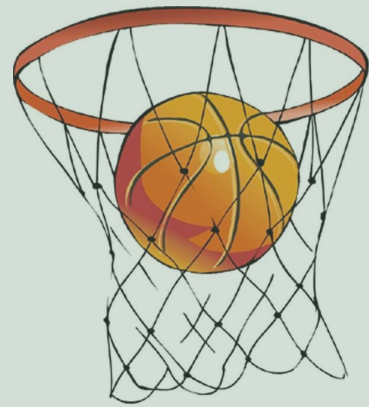

Rose of Life Intention: For life and love; for babies and bonding.
