Easter Sunday

April 9, 2023

Reading I: Acts 10: 34a, 37-43

St. Peter's sermon amounts to a summary of Jesus' earthly life, followed by the definite proclamation that "this man God raised on the third day." He will be the judge of everyone.

Reading II: Colossians 3: 1-4

St. Paul's reference to Christ as "seated at the right hand of God" was often used in the early church to point out how the Old Testament promises about the coming Messiah had been fulfilled.

The Gospel: John 20: 1-9

John not only describes here the miracle of "the first day of the week" but also insists that Jesus "had to rise from the dead." The very core of our faith.

E-GIVING

As you know, we are using Parish Giving for our online e-giving program. They are the leading provider of secure, user-friendly online giving systems specializing in religious and charitable organizations. St. Ignatius has been very fortunate to have so many parishioners participating in the program.

Those participating in online giving have found the program to be more convenient and allows them to maintain full control over their account. As a reminder, you can generate a giving report from the Parish Giving website to view all of your online contributions.

Our online giving program is a great success and our hope is that more parishioners will enroll. You may do so by going to the St. Ignatius of Antioch website at <http://www.stignatius.church> and clicking on the Parish Giving logo. For those participating in our Parish Giving program, you may print a participation receipt from the parish giving website to place in the weekly collection basket. Thank you all for your generosity towards our parish with your Sunday Gifts!

Weekly Collection

Due to Holy Week, last weekend's collection will be reported in next weekend's bulletin.

We are thankful for your consistent stewardship. ©JPPC

Faith Formation
LIFELONG AND ONGOING

Today is Easter or, more properly, the feast of the Resurrection of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. The naming of the celebration as 'easter' seems to go back to the name of a pre-Christian goddess in England, Eostre, who was celebrated at the beginning of spring. The only reference to this goddess comes from the writings of the Venerable Bede, a British monk who lived in the late seventh and early eighth century. The word 'Easter' or its equivalents appear in the Bible only once in Acts 12:4. When taken into context, however, the use of the word 'Easter' in this verse refers only to the Passover. In Hebrew it is Pascha and in Aramaic it is Pesach, both of which originally designated the Passover feast of Exodus 12. Aside from the derivation, however, let us reflect today on what actually happened on this day and what it means for us today. A man, Jesus, was tortured and crucified to the death in a most horrible manner and on this day almost 2000 years ago rose from the dead. How many people do you know that have arisen from the dead? Why is this important? We will all die, however, before the Resurrection and Christ's victory over death, our death could have been the end! But now, we have a 'new lease on life', a life for all eternity with Jesus in the Paradise of Heaven. At least, the possibility of such an eternal life is ours IF we are willing to accept the gift. The acceptance of this gift is dependent on our being willing to take up our own crosses and sufferings in this life for the sake of His sorrowful passion and follow Him who showed us the Way; gave us the Truth; and, is offering us the LIFE. To accomplish this acceptance, we need to empty ourselves of all that which attaches us to this earthly existence so we may be filled with the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of Life.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

Do you know that you will rise again? Do you know that your body is a sacramental created in the image and likeness of God? Do you know that after the Second Coming you and all others who have died will get their physical bodies back? Do you know what that physical body will look like? How about we look at Jesus' body after His resurrection? He entered into locked rooms; He brought peace; He asked for something to eat; His body had a physicality in that Thomas was able to place his hands into His wounds. Are you a doubting Thomas? Do you not realize that all who are dead will rise again? Does not the Scripture and the witness of thousands give you great hope? Does not the Shroud of Turin and the image and the blood being typed as the same as was on the true Cross and the Nails and the Crown of thorns all the same? We are to have great hope today. We are to have great 'looking forward' as a result of today. We are to look at the Risen Christ and thank Him over and over again for restoring us to the possibility of eternal life and life with Him in Heaven—more than likely a physical place since we will have 'physical' bodies and they will need a place to be, i.e. the new Jerusalem, the new Heaven and the new earth promised in Scripture. Let us all rejoice and be glad, not that Lent is over, but that Christ has risen!!!! Alleluia!!!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For those mourning the loss of a loved one: May they find peace in the hope of the Resurrection and Christ's promise of eternal life; We pray to the Lord

Rose of Life Intention: For the healing of all parents who have aborted their child.

ARCHDIOCESE OF PHILADELPHIA
OFFICE FOR LIFE AND FAMILY

The Children's Liturgy of the Word ministry is looking for volunteers to help at 9:30 Mass. The commitment is 1 or 2 Sundays per quarter, and the schedule is very flexible. We use SignUpGenius®, so you can choose the Sundays that fit your family's schedule. If a conflict should arise on one of your scheduled Sundays, it is easy to switch with another volunteer. Please consider giving this a try. You are welcome to join us downstairs any Sunday to become more familiar with the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Training of new volunteers will begin in early fall. Email Mary Alice LaMorte at malamorte@verizon.net or call 267-566-4128 to discuss further.

SAC FOOD COLLECTION

The Social Action Committee thanks our parish for their generous contributions to Mary's Cupboard. Last year, we donated 5,995 pounds of much appreciated food and household items. Right now, they are asking for specific donations of coffee, tea, shelf-stable milk and juice boxes. Collection baskets are located at the church's three main doors. We are grateful for your continued support!

Caring

Sharing food
and friendship

Caring for Friends provides free meals for the elderly, ill, poor and/or homebound in the greater Philadelphia area. Only one day per month of your time is required and you will be helping so many needy people! Our next meeting to assemble meals will be held on Thursday, April 13th from 9 am – noon in the church auditorium kitchen. We are truly blessed, but more helping hands are always needed and welcome. If you can't stay to help assemble the meals, a main dish or starch can be delivered on the morning of the meeting or a donation can be given to help us buy supplies. Your gifts and talents are always appreciated. If you would like additional information on how you can help, please call Kathy, 215-321-0116 or Jayne, 215-321-5739. Hope to see you on April 13th!
