Fourth Sunday of Lent

March 19, 2023

IF YOU WERE BLIND, YOU WOULD HAVE

no sin.

JOHN 9:41

Reading I: I Samuel 16: 1b, 6-7, 10-13a

Samuel anoints young David, who is the clear choice of the Lord. Samuel has not seen as God sees in this important matter.

Reading II: Ephesians 5: 8-14

Baptism brings us from darkness to light. This light in turn produces conduct that pleases the Lord. The section closes with what seems to be an early baptismal hymn.

The Gospel: John 9: 1-41, or 9: 1, 6-9, 13-17, 34-38

Jesus cures a blind man, and there follows the question: "Is Jesus from God or not?" The Pharisees windup being the real "blind men" for refusing to see Jesus for whom He is.

E-GIVING

As you know, we are using Parish Giving for our online e-giving program. They are the leading provider of secure, user-friendly online giving systems specializing in religious and charitable organizations. St. Ignatius has been very fortunate to have so many parishioners participating in the program.

Those participating in online giving have found the program to be more convenient and allows them to maintain full control over their account. As a reminder, you can generate a giving report from the Parish Giving website to view all of your online contributions.

Our online giving program is a great success and our hope is that more parishioners will enroll. You may do so by going to the St. Ignatius of Antioch website at <http://www.stignatius.church> and clicking on the Parish Giving logo. For those participating in our Parish Giving program, you may print a participation receipt from the parish giving website to place in the weekly collection basket. Thank you all for your generosity towards our parish with your Sunday Gifts!

Faith Formation
LIFELONG AND ONGOING

This weekend is the celebration of Laetare Sunday. Do you know what this celebration is about? Laetare means to rejoice and the first known use was around 1870. It is the fourth Sunday in Lent (about half way) and in the Western Christian liturgical calendar is a day of celebration withing the austere period of Lent. This Sunday gets its name from the first few words of the traditional Latin entrance for the Mass of the day where there are words such as rejoice, exult, sing for joy. Sometimes known as the 'Sunday of the Five Loaves' from the story of the miracle of the loaves and fishes. The priests usually wear 'rose/pink' colored vestments as a change from the 'usual purple/violet' colors. This day is considered a 'day of relaxation' from the rigors of Lenten fasts/abstinence/sacrifice and alms giving. Easter- the RESURRECTION- is in sight! This day is selected because it is exactly 21 days before Easter. Strictly speaking the Thursday before Laetare Sunday is the middle day of Lent and was at one time observed as such but this celebration of joy is to encourage the faithful in their course through the season of penance so you will notice flowers on the altar, organ music during mass, rose-colored vestments. This Sunday is sometimes referred to as 'refreshment Sunday'. So, refresh, be joyful and continue your Lenten sacrifices because the 'end' celebration is near! If interested in joining our committee or perhaps 'leading' it please contact Les Ruppertsberger at lruppertsberger@gmail.com or call at 215-680-0141.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

"To celebrate the Gospel of life means to celebrate the God of life, the God who gives life... In every child which is born and in every person who lives or dies we see the image of God's glory. We celebrate this glory in every human being, a sign of the living God, an icon of Jesus Christ" (The Gospel of Life 84).

God could have created new human life in any way He desired; His desire was to love us so much that HE bestowed upon us as humans the ability to 'co-create' new life through His Spirit- 'the Lord and Giver of life'- so, 'male and female He created them' so that the 'two become one flesh'. The very first commandment God gave to Adam and Eve was to 'be fruitful and multiply and have dominion...over all other forms of life'... making man and woman the pinnacle of his creations, all created out of love, by love, through love, for love to be in love and as that end result new life comes into being in the presence of the Holy Spirit. We need to 'see' things according to God's plan for salvation; we, like Paul, need to let the 'scales fall from our eyes' to see the meaning and blessing of life more clearly and spread the message far and wide. And, when confronted, we need to defend, explain and profess and pray. We know who wins in the end. We know the ending of the 'book' of the Bible- we know who 'wins' in this spiritual warfare with Satan, who wants to destroy us. We need to rise up and through Michael the Archangel, defeat Satan through Christ, the Sacraments, grace and prayer and our participation in the very Gospel of life!

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: May all who suffer from the wounds of abortion be filled with the hope that does not disappoint, and be healed by Christ; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For all who support crisis pregnancy centers.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

The Children's Liturgy of the Word ministry is looking for volunteers to help at 9:30 Mass. The commitment is 1 or 2 Sundays per quarter, and the schedule is very flexible. We use SignUpGenius®, so you can choose the Sundays that fit your family's schedule. If a conflict should arise on one of your scheduled Sundays, it is easy to switch with another volunteer. Please consider giving this a try. You are welcome to join us downstairs any Sunday to become more familiar with the Children's Liturgy of the Word. Training of new volunteers will begin in early fall. Email Mary Alice LaMorte at malamorte@verizon.net or call 267-566-4128 to discuss further.

PRAYER TO ST. JOSEPH FEAST DAY: MARCH 19TH

O St. Joseph, whose protection is so great, so strong, so prompt before the throne of God, I place in you all my interest and desires.

O St. Joseph, do assist me by your powerful intercession, and obtain for me from your divine Son all spiritual blessings, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So that, having engaged here below your heavenly power, I may offer my thanksgiving and homage to the most loving of Fathers.

O St. Joseph, I never weary of contemplating you, and Jesus asleep in your arms; I dare not approach while He reposes near your heart. Press Him close in my name and kiss His fine head for me and ask Him to return the kiss when I draw my dying breath. St. Joseph, patron of departing souls, pray for me. Amen.
