Twenty-Ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time

October 22, 2023

REPAY TO CAESAR
WHAT BELONGS TO
CAESAR AND TO GOD
WHAT BELONGS TO GOD.

MATTHEW 22:21

Reading I: Isaiah 45: 1, 4-6

The prophet proclaims Yahweh's declaration that He is the one Lord, and that there is no other.

Reading II: 1 Thessalonians 1: 1-5b

Paul expresses his love for the people and stresses the fact that the power of the gospel comes from the Spirit of God, and not from his rhetoric.

The Gospel: Matthew 22: 15-21

To pay taxes meant also to acknowledge that the foreign pagan authority of Rome had authority over Israel. Jesus allows payment of the tax to avoid anarchy. He preferred nonviolent social change that would lead to God's kingdom.

PARISH APPEAL

Our 2023-2024 Annual Parish Appeal is underway! This critical parish financial appeal will run from October through the end of January. This is one of our largest sources of income, aside from our normal Sunday collections, and is greatly needed for the daily operation of our parish. You should have received our appeals materials in the mail. If you have not, there are appeal envelopes located in the entrances of the church. Please return your donation by placing this year's appeal envelope in the collection basket at Mass. You may also mail your contribution or drop it off directly to the rectory.

As of week #3 of the Parish appeal, 115 families have contributed $30,275 toward our goal of $175,000. We are at 17.30% of this year's goal. Thank you for your generosity!

THANK YOU!

Dear Reverend Andrew Brownholtz:

I deem it important to express my gratitude to you and your parishioners after a most enjoyable and fruitful visit to your parish on the 7/8 of October for the 2023 World Mission Sunday. The warmth of the welcome I received, and the sincerity of the hospitality accorded me by you, your parishioners and staff exceeded my expectations. Although my visit to your parish was short, I am in no doubt that the missionary experiences I shared with you will result in cementing the bonds of friendship between the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and the rest of the Mission lands.

I thank you for the donations and prayers for the Missions.

On behalf of the Propagation of the Faith Office in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, I thank you for a successful Mission and I pray for God's continuous blessings for all of you and the people of the Archdiocese of Philadelphia. With the assurances of my prayers and highest esteem, I wish you God's choicest blessings!

Yours Sincerely,

Rev. Linus Nangwele, Ph.D.

Faith Formation
LIFELONG AND ONGOING

The Church and its adult faithful have a mission in and to the world: to share the message of Christ to renew and to transform the social and temporal order. This dual calling to evangelization and justice is integral to the identity of the lay faithful; all are called to it in baptism. Accordingly, faith formation seeks to help each adult believer become "more willing and able to be a Christian disciple in the world." As salt of the earth and light for the world (cf. Mt 5:13-16), adult disciples give witness to God's love and caring will so that, in the power of the Spirit, they renew the face of the earth. Many of us may not think we can 'witness' to this evangelical process but we ALL have stories, the stories of our lives, our lived experiences and our own interactions with God and the Church that may benefit others who may not have yet reached that same obstacle in their lives. THAT is the ministry of 'formation'; THAT is the ministry of 'accompaniment'; THAT is the ministry of 'faith sharing' and developing a closer relationship with Jesus by allowing the Christ within us to be manifested to others and by seeing the Christ in others to be manifested to us. At the same time, we may learn something new, something different and we get to have some refreshments and sharing and meet new friends and those in our parish. Our new COR program will be next Sat. 10/30 at 7:30 AM.

St. Thomas Aquinas, pray for us.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

"I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation." Pope Saint John Paul II, Evangelium vitae, no. 99. © 1995, Libreria Editrice Vaticana. Used with permission. All rights reserved

There is no healing without forgiveness and one has to forgive oneself, receive forgiveness from our Heavenly Father because He loves us unconditionally and resolve and heal our wounds. There possibly can be no deeper wound than the loss of one's child through mechanisms of one's personal choice. These 'choices' are mostly related to fear or coercion. Thanks be to God that we have Rachel's Vineyard and Project Rachel which offer counseling, retreats, resources and guidance for healing of both men and women from abortion of their children. While the 'act' of conceiving may not be marital or may be 'forced' ALL of the children so conceived, regardless of circumstance, are part of God's plan for salvation and have an important role and purpose in this world and NEED to be allowed to be born. If the parents of these children are not able or willing to parent, then adoption is the best option and there are many resources that are available to counsel and guide in that direction.

Our Lady of Guadalupe, pray for us.

Intercessory Prayer: For women and men suffering after abortion: May the Church's abortion healing ministry, Project Rachel, help them find peace and healing through Christ's endless mercy; We pray to the Lord:

Rose of Life Intention: For all adopted children and their adopting families.

LITTLE SISTERS OF THE POOR HOLY FAMILY HOME

In 1869 Archbishop Wood of Philadelphia invited the Little Sisters of the Poor from France to come and assist in caring for the vast numbers of elderly poor in the city. The charism of their foundress, St. Jeanne Jugan serving the poorest in simplicity, humility and trust in Divine Providence (begging), imbued them with the gift of fortitude for 150 years in Philadelphia through faithfully observing their vows of poverty, chastity, obedience, and hospitality while personally assisting the dying with firm belief - "It is Jesus Himself whom you are serving in the Poor." JJ.

They will be visiting us the weekend of October 28th/29th, appealing for your financial assistance to support their work. Your support is GREATLY APPRECIATED and is God's tangible providential assistance to the poor
